

End Honeymoon

Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, who only a short time ago was "America's most eligible bachelor," returned the other day with his bride, the former Manuela Hudson, from their honeymoon in Bermuda. Photo shows the happily-smiling couple as they departed at Fort Washington, L. I., from the plane that brought them from Bermuda.

Growers, Cannerymen Seek Agreement

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 12.—(UP)—In disagreement concerning size of the 1938 pack, California peach growers and cannerymen sought today to adjust their differences before a resumption of the hearings before Director of Agriculture A. A. Brock tomorrow.

The conferees are seeking to effect a marketing order for canning eling peaches. Brock recessed the meeting yesterday when the two sides failed to reach an agreement. He warned that a permanent adjournment would remove possibility of an agreement this year.

Growers favor a pack of 7,500,000 cases, approximately 170,000 tons, at $39 a ton. Cannerymen set the desirable 1938 output at 4,000,000 cases. Preston McKinney, secretary of the Cannerymen's League of California, said he was hopeful some arrangement might be reached.

County Gets $589 In Filing Fees

Apportionment of $45,050 in filing fees from candidates for public office at the August 30 primaries was announced today by the secretary of state's office, Orange county's share being $589.

Each of the state's 58 counties is allotted a share of the fees under direct primary law. Los Angeles' share was $13,049, highest share of the state; San Francisco county was next with $3,391, Alameda third with $2,424.

Circus Strong Man Wrecks Jail

ADRIAN, Mich., July 12.—Art Weeks, 56, former circus strong man and trapeze artist, was arrested for disorderly conduct and locked in a cell by four officers after a great struggle. Today the jail was in ruins and Weeks was missing.

The door to Weeks' cell was torn from its hinges. The front of the building had been pushed from its foundation.

FUTILITY OF ADJUSTING LIFE REVEALED IN SUICIDE NOTES

SAN RAFAEL, Calif., July 12.—(UP)—Marin county authorities today awaited word from Southern California on the disposal of the body of Dr. Joseph M. Swindt, 32, Chinese and Pomona physician.

Walt Whitman's "Leaves of Grass" was alongside Dr. Swindt's body in an old fashioned hotel at Olema, 25 miles west of here, where he had taken poison because of financial difficulties, belief he was a failure as a doctor and thwarted ambitions in literature and art.

Authorities said one of the clues to the melancholia which led to the young doctor's act was found in the book opened on the pages.

Seek Flood Repair Action

50 WOMEN FILE DEMAND

Today was ladies' day at the meeting of county supervisors, as half a hundred aroused women from Anaheim and vicinity swept into the board meeting and demanded action on the repair of Santa Ana river levees, against another flood. They finished by signing a petition prepared for them, urging Governor F. F. Merriam to see that Orange county gets sufficient funds from the state $5,000,000 emergency fund for the desired purpose.

Led by Mrs. Cassie O'Neill, Mrs. Earl Smith, Mrs. Johnny Walls, of Jefferson avenue, and several others, the women spoke their minds to the supervisors. They discovered that Chairman Willard Smith, of the board, will go to Sacramento tomorrow for the express purpose of seeing Governor Merriam and Edward Hyatt, state engineer, on the question of allocating funds for Orange county.

Two Alternatives

Unless state funds can be obtained, the county must try to work out its own program within the next week or ten days, with two principal alternatives: a bond issue that probably would not carry, and a direct tax levy that would bring a roar of protest from other sections of the county not affected by the Santa Ana river overflow. Supervisor Harry Riley told his constituents from the third district.

State funds, said Riley, would be used to match federal WPA funds for a levee project. The county has no funds available for such purpose. WPA is the only federal source available for such help, as PWA does not allocate "temporary" improvements, the delegation was advised.

Will See Governor

Chairman Smith will be accompanied to Sacramento by Flood Engineer M. N. Thompson and will seek to have Assemblyman Thomas Kuechel of Anaheim, who introduced the state $5,000,000 emergency bill in the legislature, accompany them.

Mrs. O'Neill, as principal spokeswoman for the women, demanded protection for her community against recurrence of the flood and suggested the petition to the governor, an idea which the board approved. She and other women turned their fire upon the bridges that gather debris and raised the flood water above the levees; the petition to the governor included a demand that all state highway and railroad bridges be rebuilt of span-type construction, to obviate the debris menace.

Criticizes Anaheim

Mrs. O'Neill herself met some criticism of her community for a late awakening to flood danger. One woman in the audience told Mrs. O'Neill that when farmers in the speaker's district were raising $10 per acre for flood protection, Anaheim refused to contribute a penny. "Anaheim hadn't got wet yet," she said.

Americans Return From Spain War

NEW YORK, July 12.—(UP)—Six Americans who have been with the Loyalist forces in Spain returned today on the liner Aquitania.

They included Mildred Rackley of Las Vegas, N. M., who acted for a while as administrator of the American hospital at Villa Paz, near Madrid.

INJURY PROVES FATAL

REDDING, Cal., July 12.—(UP)—County hospital authorities today reported the death of Clarence Wilderksen, 26, of Cottonwood. Wilderksen suffered a broken neck last week when he dived into an irrigation ditch.

Land Use Is FDR Theme

PUEBLO, Colo., July 12.—(UP)—This nation is not going to copy other forms of government because "ours is good enough for us." President Roosevelt told a Pueblo audience today, that crowded around the rear platform of his special train.

Stating that this administration's big objective "is to make democracy work," the chief executive then pledged a maintenance of the present form of government.

Politics Not Mentioned

The President made no mention of politics nor did he refer to Sen. Alva B. Adams, Democrat, up for reelection. However, it was anticipated that he would maintain a hands-off policy where Colorado politics was concerned.

Mr. Roosevelt, whose talk mainly concerned his oft-repeated philosophy of proper land use, was presented to the crowd here by Gov. Teller Ammons.

In the September Colorado primary Adams' strongest opponent will be Judge Benjamin Hilliard of the Colorado supreme court. Adams, an opponent of the judiciary reorganization bill, was the administration's floor manager when the pending bill came before the Senate.

In a speech last night at Amarillo, Tex., Mr. Roosevelt mentioned the names of several members of the Lone Star State's congressional delegation as the type that he preferred to be in Washington. He called the names of Representatives Maury Maverick, Marvin Jones, W. D. McFarland and Lyndon W. Johnson, all of whom were on board the President's train.

REVEAL NAZI PLAN TO CONTROL SPAIN

LONDON, July 12.—(UP)—The News Chronicle claimed today that it had an authentic document giving a verbatim report of a secret lecture by a German army officer on the reasons for German intervention in Spain, the race for monopoly in the Mediterranean, and a plan to frustrate British-French cooperation.

The lecture, the newspaper said, was delivered in June by one of the highest army officers to a group of Nazi leaders in Berlin. It added that a careful inquiry had been made and that it was satisfied as to the authenticity of the document.

Brutal Frankness

In one part of the lecture the German officer reportedly said: "Long range batteries in the vicinity of Algeciras (Spain) and on the African coast opposite Gibraltar ought to render good services."

County To Boost Flying Field Plan

The county supervisors today agreed to name a committee to work with the Santa Ana chamber of commerce in developing the county's 160-acre airport into a commercial flying field, for development of the aviation industry in this county.

Vice President W. F. Croddy and Secretary Howard Wood of the chamber of commerce, advised the supervisors of the need by large aviation interests of a permanent airport where demonstrations of aircraft could be carried on, a facility lacking in the Los Angeles airports. The largest figures in the manufacturing and transportation fields of aviation are cooperating with the local chamber in its effort to develop a suitable airport in this district. Manufacturing plants would be located near such a field, the chamber officials said.

Explorers To Continue Trip

LEE'S FERRY, Ariz., July 12.—(UP)—Norman D. Nevills, leader of a Colorado river expedition from Green River, Utah, to Boulder Dam, said today the trip probably would continue "tomorrow or the next day."

Nevills said all members of the party now at Lee's Ferry would resume the voyage down the rapids.

He said W. C. Gibson, photographer, had decided to continue with the explorers instead of returning to his business in San Francisco.

The others in the expedition were Miss Elzada Clover, 40, University of Michigan botany instructor, and Miss Lois Jetter, 25-year-old botany assistant at the university. Del Reid of Mexican Hat, Utah, and Jack Stockstill of Hutchinson, Kan., were expected to arrive today to take the places of two members of the original party of six.

Heads Board

President Roosevelt has appointed Robert W. Bruere, above, as chairman of the new Maritime Labor Board which will handle labor disputes in the merchant marine on a basis similar to the one on which railroad labor cases have been handled for a number of years. Mr. Bruere is a New York banker, author and educator, experienced in industrial relations. He was formerly chief counsel of the Cotton Textile Industrial Relations Board under NRA.

COURT SLAPS NAZIS AS LEADER JAILED

RIVERHEAD, N. Y., July 12.—(UP)—A supreme court jury today convicted six leaders of the German-American Settlement League, Inc., which operated a Nazi camp at Yaphank, N. Y., on charges of violating the state civil rights law.

The state charged the leaders failed to file membership lists with the secretary of state as required by oath bound organizations. A conviction also was returned by the jury against the Settlement League.

Jury Out 15 Minutes

The defendants faced a maximum penalty of $1000 fine and a year in prison. The league faced a fine of $10,000.

It required only 15 minutes for the jury of nine men and three women to reach a verdict.

County Judge L. Barron Hill said he would impose sentence on the defendants later today.

Imposes Fine

Later Judge Hill imposed a maximum fine of $10,000 on the league. He fined Ernest Mueller, 42, president of the league $500 and sentenced him to one year in prison. Fines of $500 each were meted out to Henry Wolfgang, 36, Bruno Haehnel, 52, Herman Schwarzman, 39, Adde Bielefeld, 54, and Henry Hauck, 44. The court suspended prison terms of one year imposed on these five.

San Diego Turns Down Show Plan

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 12.—(UP)—San Diego will not be represented at the San Francisco Golden Gate Exposition next year unless the county board of supervisors reconsiders a surprise action taken late yesterday.

By a vote of 3 to 2 the supervisors defeated a motion which would have notified the Los Angeles chamber of commerce that this county would participate in the exposition along with Los Angeles. The action was not scheduled on the agenda of the meeting yesterday and took the board by surprise.

The action came after spirited debate in which Harvey Hicks declared "It is time this county got out of the show business," and T. Leroy Richards stormed that "when a tourist city decides to quit advertising that's going some."

Driver Held For Manslaughter

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—(UP)—Bernie Ellis, 35, of Redwood City, was confined today in the prison ward of the general hospital, booked on three charges of manslaughter resulting from the fatal crash of his automobile into a freight engine last July 1.

Ellis was removed late yesterday from the Maywood hospital to the general hospital shortly after the complaints had been filed against him.

Although suffering internal injuries and a serious head wound, Ellis was reported well on the way to recovery. Death victims of the crash were Charlotte Richards, 30, Hollywood; Madeline De Moss, 27, Hollywood; and Louis G. Briasco, 28, San Francisco.

200 Killed In Air Raid

SHANGHAI, July 12.—(UP)—Nearly 200 civilians were killed today in widespread Japanese air raids which extended from the central provisional capital at Hankow to Canton in the south.

Thirty-four Japanese planes broke through the Chinese air defense near Hankow and raided the city of Wuchang, across the Yangtze river from the capital. More than 100 persons were killed and several hundred wounded there.

70 Minute Raid

Official reports from Canton said that more than 70 persons were killed and 200 wounded in a raid by 25 Japanese planes which bombed the city for 70 minutes. Hits were scored on the Yutwain road school and the women's vocational institute near the Sun Yat Sen university.

The Japanese also bombed Kiangtun station on the Hankow railway, killing a score of civilians.

Isolate City

The raids around Hankow were designed to isolate the city and smash the Chinese air defenses as Japanese land and naval forces advanced up the Yangtze valley to a point within five miles of the city of Kiukiang.

The raid was concentrated on the city of Wuchang, across the Yangtze from the provisional capital of Hankow. It was the first raid in that sector in two months.

Hospital Bombed

The Huphe provincial hospital at Wuchang suffered the most damage. Many women were killed when a maternity ward was hit. Scores of coolies were crushed when

GUARD WITNESSES IN BRUNEMAN CASE

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—(UP)—Witnesses of the gangland slaying of George L. Bruneman, gambling boss, were under police guard today as detectives of Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle continued their search for Joe Barry and Pete Penizzi, former convicts suspected of the Bruneman slaying last October 25.

Patricia Estote, Bruneman's night club hostess and companion when he was wounded seriously in a gun attack by two men at Redondo Beach a year ago, was promised a police guard.

Bruneman "Caught"

Other witnesses were in the Roost cafe on West Temple street when the gangsters finally "caught up" with Bruneman and shot him to death and wounded his nurse, Alice Ingram.

Frank Greuzard, employee of the cafe, was shot to death also when he followed the slayers to the street and attempted to take the number of their automobile.

Sought In North

Barry is being sought in San Francisco, while Penizzi was hunted in Seattle.

Barry it was disclosed, jumped bail of $750 following arrest on a narcotics charge, paid his bondsman, but did not appear for trial. Detectives Miles Ledbetter and Warren Hudson returned from San Francisco and said they would ask for murder complaints against the suspects later in the week.

Woman Killed In Head-On Crash

REEDLEY, Cal., July 12.—(UP)—Mrs. Helen Sparks, 22, of Orange Cove, was killed instantly in a collision of two automobiles at a rural intersection three miles east of here last night.

Howard Smith, 21, of Orange Cove, driver of the car in which Mrs. Sparks was riding, suffered serious injuries. Officers said Rufino Aves, of Reedley, driver of the other car involved, drove through a stop sign at the intersection at a high rate of speed. Aves was being held in technical custody in the Tulare county hospital where he and two others in his car were taken for treatment.

Pair Jailed On Narcotics Charge

HOLLYWOOD, July 12.—(UP)—Martin Cusimano, 34, and Maxine Dickerson, 23, were held by police today on suspicion of violation of the narcotic law and robbery, following their arrest last night and the seizure of marijuana valued at $15,000.

Cusimano was arrested after an automobile running-board battle through downtown streets in which Detective A. Ortiz was injured when he was knocked from a speeding automobile.

"Press Agent" With Orchids

DANGER LOMBARD NOW AT WORK

Movie press agents don't usually wear orchids, but here's one who's different—none other than Carole Lombard, who thought it would be a good stunt to take over the job of Selznick International publicity director. Selznick officials say she actually did the job for a week, but maybe that's just some of Carole's publicity work. Anyway, it's a good thing there aren't many press agents like her, for it would be difficult indeed to question the motives behind "hand-out" issued by such a personable public relations person.

FDR'S ELECTION TOUR FACES TEST AS OKLAHOMANS BALLOT

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 12.—(UP)—Oklahoma's primary provided today a partial test of the effectiveness of President Roosevelt's transcontinental tour urging the nomination and election of liberal congressional candidates.

Senator Elmer Thomas, to whom Mr. Roosevelt referred to in his speech here Saturday as "my old friend," was opposed by Gov. E. W. McFarland and Rep. Gomer Smith. Both McFarland and Smith were conceded a chance of defeating Thomas before the President visited Oklahoma.

Await Outcome

Whether Mr. Roosevelt's appearance and interlarded endorsement of Thomas was of sufficient political significance to secure the reelection of the Senator will be determined in today's balloting.

There is no Democratic run-off election in Oklahoma. The winners of today's nominations will be pitted against Republican nominees in the general election. Approximately 600,000 votes, including some 65,000 Republican, will be cast in the primary, officials believed.

The polls opened at 7 a. m. In rural precincts the voting will close at 6 p. m., in cities at 7 p. m. Skies were clear.

OLD RECORD IS SMASHED

BULLETIN
NEW YORK, July 12.—(UP)—The National Broadcasting Company late today broadcast an announcement it had received word from Moscow that Howard Hughes had taken off from Omsk for Eastern Siberia.

MOSCOW, July 12.—(UP)—Howard Hughes, dashing around the world on a record-breaking flight from New York, brought his twin motored plane down tonight at Omsk, Siberia, at 9 p. m. Moscow time (2 p. m. EDT), completing a flight of 1437 miles from Moscow. On its arrival at Omsk, the plane was 6763 miles out of New York in an elapsed time of 42 hours and 40 minutes.

Ahead of Record

It was well ahead of the record set by the late Wiley Post on his solo flight around the world in 1931, although there was no exact comparison at this point, because Post did not stop at Omsk.

The scientifically equipped plane made the jump from Moscow to Omsk, the third of its journey, in seven hours and 29 minutes, which made its average flying speed since leaving New York 211.49 miles an hour.

Plans Quick Takeoff

The other two jumps were from New York to Paris and from Paris to Moscow. It was expected Hughes would refuel quickly and continue his headlong flight eastward to Yakutsk, Siberia.

Hughes and his four companions, flying high to avoid the clouds,

Official Log Of Flight

Following is the official log of the round the world flight of Howard Hughes and his four companions. All times are eastern daylight.

Sunday
7:20 P. M.—Took off from Floyd Bennett airport.
11:20 P. M.—Reported by radio near Cape Breton, N. S., 700 miles from New York.

Monday
1:30 A. M.—Passed last landmark near St. Johns, N. F., headed to sea 1180 miles from New York, flying at 7000 feet; speed 192 miles an hour.

2:30 A. M.—1400 miles out of New York; Hughes expressed concern whether fuel supply would last to Paris.

5:25 A. M.—Passed halfway mark across Atlantic, gaining speed and flying at more than 200 miles an hour with 25-mile tail wind at altitude of 9000 feet.

9:25 A. M.—Reported over Kenmare, Ireland, flying at 250 miles an hour.

11:00 A. M.—Passing over France.
11:51 A. M.—Landed at Le Bourget Field, Paris, 16 hours 31 minutes out of New York after flight of 3641 miles.

8:25 P. M.—Left Le Bourget Field after repairs which delayed departure.

Tuesday
12:15 A. M.—Advised Berlin radio station plane was flying blind over Germany at 17,800 feet at speed of 200 miles an hour; reported that each time plane descended to clouds ice began forming.

4:13 A. M.—Sighted at Moscow central airport.
4:15 A. M.—(Official time as given by Tass Agency, official Russian news agency)—Landed at Moscow, after flight of 1675 miles from Paris and 5316 miles more to go. Elapsed time from New York, 32 hours 55 minutes.

6:31 A. M.—Left central airport, Moscow, for Omsk, Siberia. Elapsed time from New York 35 hours 11 minutes.

8:30 A. M.—Hughes reported over Kazan, about 400 miles east of Moscow.

12:40 P. M.—Reported about 260 miles west of Omsk.

2:00 P. M.—Arrived Omsk.

YOUTHFUL "PIRATES" ON WAY HOME; CRUISE A "NIGHTMARE"

ENSENADA, Mex., July 12.—(UP)—The $25,000 yacht Tira, stolen by three California high school boys for a cruise to Mexico, was enroute back home today with the youths as part of the crew, and without any lifeboat.

The boys explained they didn't own a lifeboat, a wealthy like the looks of the lifeboat, and they thought they would have a lifeboat. They thought they would have a lifeboat. They thought they would have a lifeboat.

As the Tira rocked at anchor, the three "pirates" swabbed decks and told of their voyage, which they described as "one horrible nightmare." They wanted to sail to Panama, South America and Australia, and laid their plans carefully all through the spring term at Santa Cruz high school. Three times a week they met in a secret rendezvous to study navigation.

Hughes Lands Plane In Siberia

were reported only twice after leaving Moscow. First they were located over Kazan, about 400 miles east of Moscow, and then halfway between Sverdlovsk and Omsk, about 260 miles from their goal.

Short Pause

They had arrived here after a flight of 1,715 miles from Paris, and 5,515 miles from New York, at 11:15 a. m. (4:15 a. m. EDT). As they took off, after a pause of only two hours and 15 minutes, they were gaining steadily on the round the world record of seven days 18 hours 48 minutes set by the late Wiley Post in 1931.

Eighteen-Hour Flight

Flying over central and eastern Europe high above thick cloud banks in constant danger if they flew too low of permitting ice to form on the plane, the aviators made the Paris-Moscow stage, second of their flight, in seven hours 41 minutes.

Ahead of Time

As they arrived they were 32 hours and 35 minutes out of Floyd Bennett airport, which they left at 7:20 p. m. (EDT) Sunday.

They had halted in their flight from New York to Paris, the time made by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh in his solo flight in 1927; when they reached Moscow they were 17 hours 15 minutes ahead of the time Post made in 1931, flying by way of Berlin.

Leaving as quickly as they did, Hughes and his companions gained another 36 minutes on Post, who remained here two hours and 52 minutes, and they were now 17 hours 15 minutes ahead of the Post record.

Excellent Takeoff

They would have gained another 10 minutes but that one of the silver monoplane's two motors did not function well when they taxied round the central airport for their take-off. But the two motors roared in perfect key after the brief delay, and the fliers made an excellent take-off.

A roar of cheers went up from the big crowd here as Hughes, a $28,000,000 capitalist in a socialist land, started on a flight across vast Russia to Alaska and the United States.

Changes Plans

Hughes had planned at first to fly direct to Krasnoyarsk, Siberia, for a third stage of 2,281 miles. As he took off, however, he said he would make for Omsk, approximately 800 miles this side of it on the trans-Siberian railroad.

Hughes, Richard Stoddard, radio engineer; Thomas L. Thurlow and Harry P. McLean, navigators, and Edward Lund, engineer-mechanic had 9,244 miles to go to Floyd Bennett airport in complete the round the world flight and better Post's record.

Weather Perfect
The weather was brilliant as the silver monoplane arrived at the great central airport this morning.

Hughes and his companions were unexcited by a flight that was making aviation history. "We had fine weather and no trouble whatever," Hughes said. "On the first part we had had visibility until we reached Warsaw. Then it became clearer, continually, with a strong west wind."

It was sunny when the fliers reached here. But below them, as they crossed sleeping Europe this morning, danger lay at all times.

Wind Aids Fliers
There was a tail wind to aid the speed of the fliers. But even when they flew at 17,000 feet they were just skimming on top of clouds that extended almost to the ground. Every time the fliers tried to get below the clouds a film of ice began to form on the plane. It was raining a great part of the way.

The big two motored Lockheed 14 which Hughes flew, is a "flying laboratory" with every instrument that can aid the aviator. But the elemental dangers were fully present.

Welcome Prepared
Awaiting the American round the world fliers at the great central airport here were Russian authorities and members of the American legation staff, including Stuart E. Grummon, first secretary; Charles E. Rohlen, second secretary; Norris B. Chipman, third secretary, and Maj. Frank B. Hayne, assistant military attaché.

A big banquet table was ready in the administration building of the airport for the fliers and their official welcoming.

The silver plane flashed in the sun as it came down and landed smoothly.

Hughes stepped out first. He was greeted by Alexander C. Kirk, counselor and charge d'affaires of the American embassy. Then he went at once to a radio microphone to broadcast a message to the United States.

Needs Shave
Hughes showed the strain of the flight only slightly. His face had a two-day growth of beard.

The fliers were taken into the big banquet room, and there Mikhail Gramov, Georgi Baidukov and Andrei Jumashev, who had flown from Moscow to the United States by way of the North Pole—Gramov and Jumashev to P...

Anaheim Women File Demands

Mrs. Walls echoed that statement. So did Supervisor John Mitchell, of Garden Grove, who pointed out that Anaheim refused to join the Garden Grove protection district.

Mrs. O'Neill laughed. "I can take it as well as dish it out," she said. "I'm glad to learn of these matters."

A little later when asked "why the men haven't been heard from," she replied: "They haven't had a chance," laughed Mrs. Walls.

Men In Background
But the men had a minor voice in the discussion. W. C. Mauerhan, director of the Orange county water district, told of work the district was doing in digging channels under the bridges. He urged that all packing houses in the district send messages to the governor demanding relief.

Secretary John Morgan, of the Anaheim chamber of commerce, said his organization felt the supervisors are doing all they can to work out a program, and promised cooperation.

A. P. Sullivan, rancher on East street, declared there was no use rebuilding the levees unless the bridges were properly constructed. He expressed satisfaction with the steps taken at the meeting to get relief.

Protest Incident
The United States consulate general will protest the incident and the Standard Oil Company will demand indemnity.

Japanese guns on warships between Kiukiang and Hukow, 20 miles down river, were pouring shells into the defenses of the city's outskirts. The Japanese did not attempt to shell the city proper.

Chinese reports admitted that the Japanese were within 10 miles of Kiukiang, but claimed that the Chinese were waging a "sanguinary" defense. Foreign observers believed that if Kiukiang should fall the Chinese government would abandon Hankow and move to Chungking.

Both Chinese and Japanese reports indicated that a spectacular battle was in progress on Poyang lake, southeast of Kiukiang.

Japanese airplanes were bombing Chinese gunboats. The Chinese were attacking small Japanese boats attempting to land troops on the west shore.

200 Are Killed In Nippon Raids bombs fell in the heavily populated districts of Wuchang. The Wuchang district is made up of the provincial capital of Hankow and the cities of Hanyang and Wuchang. It is the objective of the present Japanese drive, which today was within a few miles of the city of Kiukiang on the Yangtze.

Americans in City
About 10 Americans were in the city, an important Yangtze river port 135 miles below Hankow. They made no attempt to seek refuge aboard the United States Gunboat Monocacy which, with the British Gunboat Cockchafer, had docked about three miles below the city.

The Chinese government ordered the Monocacy to leave the night of July 10, it was revealed, but the American officers aboard refused to obey.

Chinese authorities at Kiukiang ordered the Standard Oil Co. to sink three of their pontoons on the Yangtze in an effort to prevent Japanese troop landings. Soco employees sank one and later Chinese troops shelled and sank the others.

The night that he returned from Washington Hilliard filed his candidacy on a "New Deal" platform. His campaign managers asserted that the President, if he indicated his choice in the Colorado election, would show his preference of Hilliard.

Adams was expected to join the President's train at Trinidad, Colo. Hilliard also planned to accompany the Presidential party into Pueblo, although it was not disclosed where he proposed to board the train.

Plans Three Stops
From Colorado the Roosevelt train will proceed to California, via Salt Lake City and Ogden, Utah. Three stops, not listed in the original itinerary, will be made in Nevada, where Senator Pat McCarran, Democrat, who has opposed numerous administration proposals, is seeking re-election. The President will make appearances in Nevada at Elko, Reno and Sparks. It was expected that he would renew there his appeal for election of senators and representatives who are friendly to his program.

The opponent of McCarran in the Nevada primary will be Albert Hilliard, son of the Colorado judge who is seeking the Senate post now held by Adams.

Mr. Roosevelt's departure from Texas was marked by his speech at Amarillo where thousands of residents of the Panhandle country assembled in a driving rain to see and hear him. Unmindful of the weather himself, Mr. Roosevelt stood in dripping clothes to explain his land use policy and to re-define the administration's agricultural policy.

Solons Unnoticed
Senator Tom Connally and Rep. Hutton Summers, although they also were on the train, went unnoticed by the President in his public utterances. Connally and Summers were two of the most bitter opponents of the Supreme Court reorganization bill.

Liberal Candidate
Hilliard contends that he is a liberal candidate. A member of congress during the World War, he for many years has been a leader of the state Democratic organization. A month ago he was a guest of President Roosevelt at the White House.

The night that he returned from Washington Hilliard filed his candidacy on a "New Deal" platform. His campaign managers asserted that the President, if he indicated his choice in the Colorado election, would show his preference of Hilliard.

Adams was expected to join the President's train at Trinidad, Colo. Hilliard also planned to accompany the Presidential party into Pueblo, although it was not disclosed where he proposed to board the train.

Plans Three Stops
From Colorado the Roosevelt train will proceed to California, via Salt Lake City and Ogden, Utah. Three stops, not listed in the original itinerary, will be made in Nevada, where Senator Pat McCarran, Democrat, who has opposed numerous administration proposals, is seeking re-election. The President will make appearances in Nevada at Elko, Reno and Sparks. It was expected that he would renew there his appeal for election of senators and representatives who are friendly to his program.

"If necessary," he was quoted, "the powerful army that Generalissimo Francisco Franco will have at his disposal after victory in Spain can be thrown into the scale; supported by a widespread feeling in favor of Nationalist Spain in Portugal, that army would be able to... install in Portugal a regime acceptable to us."

"We need hardly reckon with resistance, but should resistance be offered the Portuguese army is rather weak."

Of almost as much interest as the Senatorial race was the Democratic campaign for governor. William H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray, inferentially spoken of by Mr. Roosevelt as "that nationally known Republican," sought to become the first Oklahoma governor to be reelected.

FDR Election Tour Tested
Smith, believed by many to have a better chance than Marland of defeating Thomas, closed his campaign last night with a radio address in which he referred to Thomas and Marland as "those two old men." Thomas is 62, Marland 68. Smith celebrated his 45th birthday yesterday.

Witmer Asks $1000 Of 'Independent'
The Orange County Publishing Company, Inc., which published the Santa Ana Independent, today was defendant in a suit brought in superior court by one of its prominent stockholders, Paul B. Witmer, who asks judgment for $1000 alleged to be due on a note executed November 21, 1936, by President A. B. Berry and Secretary Clyde C. Downing, of the publishing company.

Besides the principal, Witmer asks interest at seven per cent from last February 28, also $150 as attorney fees. Attorneys Phil S. Gibson and Belmore G. Goulden, of Los Angeles, and Martell E. Thompson, of Orange, represent Witmer.

The year 1935 was England's busiest since 1916 in its lifeboat service. During the year, 378 launches were sent to vessels in distress.

FIFTY CRIMES LAID TO RING

Sheriff Logan Jackson and his men last night broke up an alleged band of Orange county thieves who have been responsible for 50 acts of depredation and burglary during the past year throughout the county, it was reported today.

Seven youths, ranging in age from 16 to 21, were booked at county jail on burglary charges, alleging they obtained between $2500 and $3000 worth of loot during their almost-nightly activity.

Tires Lead to Arrests
Marks of the tires on a car they used led to their arrest and subsequent confessions, the sheriff said.

After some of the seven, sought at the Marvin Stroud pumping plant, Sugar and Cannery streets, escaped from officers who were staked out there several nights ago, by running, Deputy Sheriffs Steve Duhart and Ed Hoffman followed the trail of their tires, beginning about 8 a. m. yesterday. By 10:30 p. m. yesterday, the seven had been rounded up and jailed. An eighth's arrest in central California is expected momentarily.

Huntington Beach Youths
The arrested are: Leo Kanawyer, 21, and Jay D. Kanawyer, 19, of Route 1, Box 249, Huntington Beach; Ralph Ortiz, 21, and Manuel Ortiz, 18, Route 1, Box 135, Huntington Beach; Frank Contreras, 21, Route 1, Box 477, Huntington Beach; Robert Ingersoll, 18, Route 1, Box 487, Huntington Beach; and Lee Ray, 16, Route 1, Box 204, Huntington Beach.

Nabbing one of the youths yesterday morning, Deputies Duhart and Hoffman drove him from scene to scene of alleged petty thefts and burglaries. He finally confessed and implicated the others. According to the investigation, not yet complete, a dozen thefts from county road department trap wagons during the past six months, were committed by the youths, several of whom confessed to the "trap wagon jobs," the officers said.

Entered Several Times
They assertedly confessed they burglarized the Stroud plant several times, obtaining belts, a motor, and other items.

OWNERS OF FABULOUS GRAPHITE MINE PERFECT INCORPORATION

A valley of graphite in the San Bernardino mountains which attracted world-wide attention when it was discovered by two Orange county men, John Regan, Fullerton, and Mark Hart, Orange, about a year ago, again is in the limelight as an incorporation has been formed absorbing the interests of the present owners.

The corporation has been named "The Big Bear Graphite Co. Inc.", and officers are, John Regan, president; Norris H. Hilton, vice president; secretary and treasurer, Oscar J. Sells, Long Beach; directors, Mark Hart and A. A. Bend. Permission has been granted the company by the State Corporation Commission, to sell preferred stock, it is stated by Regan.

Weather Halts Operations
Since the discovery of the graphite deposit, believed to be the largest in the world, roads have been under construction to the mine, winter, snow and rains halting the work of bringing out the ore. The mine is estimated to contain five billion tons of ore priced from $100 to $1500 a ton, depending on its richness. The deposit also contains gold, $6 to a ton; silver, $3 to a ton, while in some places the gold assays $204 to a ton, the owners reported.

The value of the deposit has been placed by geologists at unbelievable sums running into millions of dollars. The graphite is said to run 40 per cent pure. The story of the finding of the mine is like a fairy tale, the curiosity of Mark Hart, Orange trucking contractor, and his engineer, Regan, leading to the find.

Substance Noticed
Hart went to a valley near Big Bear lake with Regan to estimate the cost of transporting gold bearing ore from a mine in the vicinity to a smelter in Salt Lake City. The men noticed a mixture of smooth, black substances mixed with the gold ore.

C. O. Hewins, miner, who prospected for the gold, complained that the "black stuff" was a nuisance. The ore was taken to Norris H. Hilton, Santa Ana assayer, who pronounced it graphite.

The propellers on most of the British and American war planes turned in a counter-clockwise direction.

$75 Sleeping Bag Stolen from Cabin
Sometime between July 4 and today, burglars cut a screen and smashed a window glass from the mountain cabin of H. M. Sowden, 853 South Lemon, Anaheim, and stole a $75 sleeping bag, according to reports to investigating deputy sheriffs today.

The Howden cabin is located in Wild Cat canyon back of Shady Brook, Silverado canyon.

2 ARE INJURED IN 3 ACCIDENTS

Two persons were injured late yesterday, according to reports of three accidents to California highway officers today.

At 11:50 p. m. yesterday, Jesus Esparza, 16, Los Angeles, was injured on Taft avenue at the intersection of Olive road a mile south of Olive, when his car went out of control and into a ditch.

At 4:20 p. m., Katella road in the intersection of Chestnut, Stanton, Benigno Ornelius, 19, Stanton, was injured as a truck operated by A. A. Serna, 58, Santa Ana, and a coupe operated by Lorenza Valdez, 17, San Bernardino, collided.

Serna was ticketed for driving without a license. At Orange avenue and 22nd street, a mile north of Costa Mesa, Orin Overman, 25, and Edna Bekk-ma, 22, both of Costa Mesa, escaped injury as their cars collided. The accident occurred at 6 p. m.

It is claimed that the speed of modern bombing planes is much too high for accurate bombing. Instances in the Spanish war are cited as examples.

Held To Answer In Morals Case

Accused of using force to commit a felony morals offense against a 20-year-old Mexican girl at the beach recently while on a swimming party, Arliss E. Parker, 26, Glendale, was held to answer to superior court today by Justice Kenneth Morrison who heard the girl's testimony.

B. & P. W. MEMBERS TO ATTEND PARLEY

SANTA ANA PLAYGROUNDS TO DRAW THROUG

CITY READY TO OPEN PROGRAM

It became "play time" officially for Santa Ana youth today as plans were completed for operation of school playgrounds, playgrounds at Municipal Bowl, Santiago park and play spots at the Y. M. C. A. The playground program has been elaborately worked out by Lieutenant B. A. Hershey of the Santa Ana police department and Faber Bray, assistant project manager for Orange county recreation under WPA.

Police Chief Floyd W. Howard urged that parents send their children to the play centers during their operation because of the heat.

Police To Supervise.

"Trained WPA instructors have been selected to take charge of the play spots and to direct activities of the youths, both boys and girls," he said. "The spots are operated under direction of the police department, each place having an officer to help the children across streets in the vicinity of the places and to see that order is maintained."

All of the school grounds where the recreation is directed will be open six hours daily except Saturday and Sunday, from 3 a. m. to 2 p. m. The schools are as follows: Edison, St. Gertrude place and Orange avenue; Franklin, Fourth and Pacific; Fremont, Artesia and Eighth; Lincoln, 15th and French; Logan, Logan and Stafford streets; Roosevelt, First and French, and Spurgeon, Cushman and Sycamore.

Bowl Open Five Hours

The municipal bowl will be open for five hours except Saturday and Sunday, 9 a. m. to 2 p. m., and the Santiago park, six hours, from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m., under police and WPA supervision. At the Y. M. C. A., the plunge will be open from 1:30 p. m. to 3:30 p. m. on the same schedule.

Right now, softball is the chief activity of many of the boys and some girls. Seventeen or 18 teams already have been organized and "playoffs" among teams from the various school grounds are "in order." The city furnishes equipment, including bats, balls, park equipment at some locations and other equipment depending upon the type of sports being enjoyed at the time.

Battered Boat Is Towed To L. A.

The grounded and badly battered $45,000, 33-foot fishing boat Kingfisher was afloat today, pulled off a Newport harbor sand bar by a tug and derrick barge.

A Wrigley tug was towing the Kingfisher, from which a $3,000 cargo of bluefin tuna had been removed, and was en route to Los Angeles harbor.

Doing Something About the Weather

Here's a young lady who is disproving the old saying that everybody talks about the weather, but nobody does anything about it. She is 6-year-old Billy Corinne Smith of Chattanooga, Tenn., who demonstrates how to spell a hot spell by the nozzle-to-noggin method. Try it sometime.

FIRST ORANGE COUNTY DAY IS TO BE HELD THURSDAY, AUG. 11

Date for the first annual "Orange County Day" originally scheduled for July 26, has been changed to August 11 at Huntington Beach, according to Howard I. Wood, secretary of the Santa Ana chamber of commerce, to avoid conflict with the Los Alamitos Rodeo.

If present plans are completed, members of the Orange County Coast association, the Associated Chambers of Commerce, and the Presidents and Secretaries association will meet with business men from all parts of the county in a huge barbecue and picnic celebration.

Object of the affair is to promote better harmony between various communities of the county.

Mrs. Cora Collins has returned to her home in Palo Alto after a ten days' stay in the home of Mrs. Remus Koenig, 1109 North Broadway. Another recent visitor in Mrs. Koenig's home was her nephew Orme Hering of Denver, Colo., who since has gone to San Francisco to make his home. He was in Santa Ana for two weeks.

Miss Betty Sutton of Delavan, Calif., arrived Sunday for a several weeks' visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Latham, 842 Riverline avenue.

TO WORKHOUSE ON DAY OFF

CLEVELAND, (UP) — Theodore Regan's employer gave him a day off so he could go to the workhouse. Regan, who pleaded guilty in traffic court to a speeding charge, told Judge Kovachy that he could not go to the work-house for three days as he would lose his job. The judge told him to ask his employer for one day off. The request was granted.

NEGRO WOMAN IS SOUGHT IN THEFT

At request of Santa Ana police on complaint signed by Mrs. Laura Barrett, 412 Forest avenue, Fort Worth, Tex., officers today were seeking Mrs. Ivine Evans, 35, Negro woman who left Fullerton for Texas, by train Sunday, assertedly in possession of $104 belonging to Mrs. Barrett.

Mrs. Barrett said she had the money hidden beneath some bedding on the shelf of a bedroom occupied by Mrs. Evans before Mrs. Evans disappeared and claimed she had a witness who assertedly can testify that she knew of the theft. The warrant of arrest charges petty larceny.

COWCATCHER SAVES COW

REGINA, Sask. (UP) — A red shorthorn cow walked leisurely down the railroad track, ignoring warning blasts from the whistle of an oncoming engine. The outcome — the cow turned a double somersault in the air, rolled over several times as she hit the ground, got up, and walked away.

CLOCK OF 1492 STILL TICKS

ST. BONIFACE, Mann (UP) — An ancient clock said to be of the Christopher Columbus days still ticks away the minutes in the sitting room of a St. Boniface home. The old relic is stamped with the date 1492 and bears the head of the famous explorer. It is made of wood, except for three metal wheels.

In Natural Gas Communities you really see the sky!

There's no chimney smoke in Southern California to dull the beauty of the horizon! For most homes and factories use natural gas. And natural gas is all heat. It burns clean. Of course, people usually take this for granted. It is only when you compare other regions, in which other fuels are used, that you notice the difference. Make a comparison when you take a trip elsewhere. ■ And remember, in factories and in homes, for best service from this clean fuel, use equipment that is up to date. Modern gas appliances for cooking, refrigeration, water-heating and house-heating are now being shown at dealers' and at the gas company. Ask about the very liberal terms.

NAME SAN MARINO MAN LAGUNA POLICE CHIEF

HIGH TRIBUTE PAID JOHNSON

LAGUNA BEACH, July 12.—At a special meeting last night, the city council accepted the resignation of Police Chief Abe W. Johnson, paid high tribute to the outgoing officer, voted him a months' vacation with full pay, assured him of a city position, either on the police force or in a special capacity, and, following a brief announcement by Mayor Howard G. Heister, appointed as Johnson's successor Gene R. Woods, present chief of police at San Marino, Pasadena's fashionable suburb.

The new appointee, who comes with an impressive list of testimonials from Los Angeles law enforcement officers, including Eugene Biscailuz, sheriff, Byron Fitts, district attorney, and James J. Davis, chief of police, has a comprehensive record of police achievement. Forty-one years of age, Woods is a graduate of the U. C. school of criminology at Berkeley; was in police work at Berkeley under Chief August Vollmer, pioneer in modern criminological work as applied to police practice, and for a while was on pension, following injuries received in a gun duel with a fugitive.

Later recovering his health, Woods was employed as investigator for the Los Angeles county grand jury, was connected with the Los Angeles Olympic games, and for four years past has been chief of police at San Marino. In accepting his appointment, which was unanimous, Woods demurred to making any speech or statement, contenting himself with a few words in which he pledged his best efforts in the public interest. Representatives of various commissions, civic leaders, and citizens felicitated Chief Woods upon his appointment, which is immediately effective.

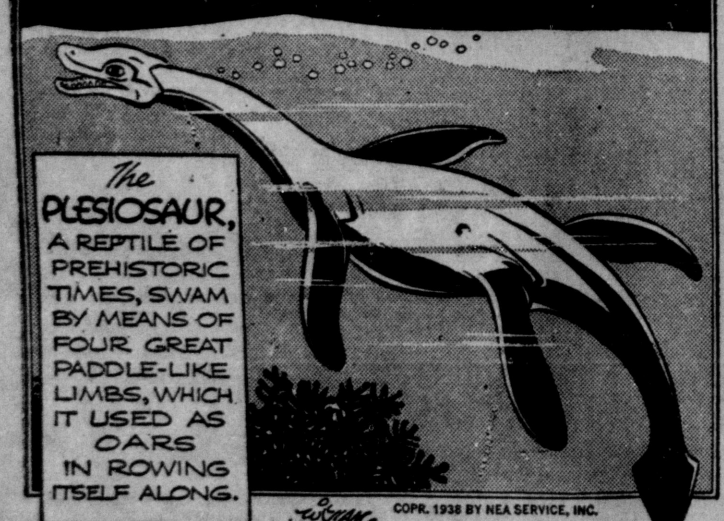

In paying tribute to outgoing Chief Johnson, Mayor Heister warmly commended the retiring officer for his past work, adding that Johnson was entitled to "courtesy, respect and kindness, and that every member of the city council was a personal friend" of Abe W. Johnson. It was made clear, in answer to a question from the audience, that Johnson was not being separated from the police force, of which, Mayor Heister said, Johnson remains a member. Upon his return from vacation, it was stated, a place in the city's official family would be awaiting the veteran police officer, whose resignation, in two terse lines, was filed only yesterday.

Missionary Group Holds Meeting

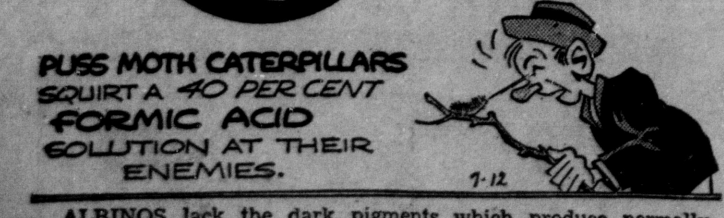

SILVER ACRES, July 12.—Mrs. Theodore Richardson was hostess to the members of the Women's Missionary society of the Silver Acres Community church on Thursday, at her home on Hazard street. Mrs. Ida M. Gates presided at the business meeting, at which it was decided to hold a "food shower" for Lucile Memorial Home for Girls at Wilmington, at the next meeting of the society, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Cora Coe and Mrs. Gates on Thursday morning, August 4. Luncheon will be served at noon.

The day was spent in work on the quilts and a pot luck dinner was enjoyed by those present who were Rev. and Mrs. Robert D. Richardson, Mrs. Laura Scott, Mrs. Cecelia Cain, Mrs. Charles L. Curry, Mrs. A. B. Peterson, Miss Edythe Scott, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. William Davis, Miss Lyneell Cain, Mrs. Eulalia Baker, Mrs. Clark Gilliam, Merleene Gilham, Mrs. G. L. Bryant, Miss Norma Davis, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Frank Scofield, Mrs. Ida Coe, Kathleen and Eileen Gilham, Betty Allen Richardson, Miss Beatrice Littrick, Roberta Jean Richardson and Mrs. Ted Richardson.

NEWPORT TO ASK PRESIDENT TO PAY SHORT VISIT THERE

NEWPORT-BALBOA, July 12.—A new director will be added to the board of the Newport Harbor chamber of commerce in place of Capt. Wm. J. Brown who because of change of residence had to resign his office. Capt. Brown in advising the board of his resignation expressed great interest in the future of the community of Newport-Balboa and stated that in his belief the future growth would be very great.

Next meeting of the directors will elect a local business man to fill the vacancy. President Spicer appointed Mayor Williamson, W. H. Adams, postmaster at Newport Beach, Hubbard Howe, C. F. Denison and Harry Welch a committee to try and secure a short stop to the President's trip from Los Angeles to San Diego on Saturday next.

Another important group is the special committee selected to steer the Tournament of Lights through its financial problems, this group is headed by J. D. Watkins with Hubbard Howe, C. F. Watts, Lonnie Vincent and Ken Hitchcock as associates.

A vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Boyd for their aid in carrying out the decoration and arrangement for the float at the Fourth of July parade at Huntington Beach was accorded. Dr. Howard Seager, secretary of the planning commission explained the processes by which improvements were selected and submitted for approval to federal authorities under the new state planning commission act. He also announced the two important hearings when the recommendations of the committee of 50 appointed by Mayor Williamson will be reviewed and discussion on same invited from the public. The hearings are called for the city hall at Newport Beach on July 13 and 27. They will be held at 7:30 each evening.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

LA HABRA, July 12.—Jim Launer was the honoree at a birthday dinner given Saturday evening by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Launer, at the family home on East Erna street. Gifts were presented to him during the dinner and motion pictures were enjoyed later in the evening.

Attending were Mrs. Anna C. Launer, Mrs. Louise Carson, Miss Pauline Potts of Fullerton, Ray Launer, Mr. and Mrs. Launer and Jim Launer.

Bridge Club At Beach Party

BALBOA, July 12.—A recent beach party at which contract bridge club members and a number of guests attended was given by Mrs. A. J. Gant at her home, 951 West Central avenue. Refreshments were served under gaily colored beach umbrellas.

High score award was won by the hostess, Mrs. Theodore Robins, second, and Mrs. Eugene Carter, third. An evening party is planned for late July.

In addition to club members, present were Mrs. George Garfield of Los Angeles, Mrs. Dee Wolfe of Doheny Park, Mrs. Theodore Robins, Mrs. Clayton Thompson and Mrs. M. E. Weston of Balboa, and Mrs. Conrad Shock of Balboa Island.

Mrs. M'Callum Is Host On Birthday

BALBOA, July 12.—Mrs. Donald McCallum of 1577 Miramar drive celebrated her birthday anniversary with a family dinner Saturday evening at her Balboa home. In addition to members of the immediate family, guests were the honoree's mother, Mrs. M. M. West, her sister, Miss Lucien West of Pasadena and a cousin, Miss Jean Munro of Evanston, Ill. The latter, who has been a house guest here at the McCallum home left today from Los Angeles for her home in the east.

LAGUNA BEACH ASKS FOR STOP

LAGUNA BEACH, July 12.—At last night's meeting of the city council, Owen A. Williams, president of the Chamber of Commerce, stated that a telegram had been sent last Saturday to Oklahoma City, directed to President Roosevelt, then en route West, inviting the chief executive to briefly break his trip to San Diego, at Laguna Beach. Williams asked that the city council fortify the invitation with another bid, on the city's behalf, requesting Mr. Roosevelt to make a short pause, plans being afoot to have a broadcasting set-up in the center of town, over which the President might speak. After some discussion, Mayor Heister and Mr. Williams were authorized by the council to add the city's civic invitation to that sent by the chamber. The President is expected to pass through Laguna Beach, on his way to San Diego, some time on Saturday morning, July 16.

Bridal Party At Wedding Named

PLACENTIA, July 12.—Through an oversight, the bridal party for the wedding of Miss Dorothy Solesbee to Clifford D. Lakeman at the Placentia Presbyterian church was omitted from the story in The Register Monday night.

Miss Solesbee was attended by her sister, Miss Clarabelle Solesbee, as maid of honor, wearing a coral shaded semi-formal frock, and carrying Talisman roses and delphinium. She also wore a chaplet of flowers in her hair. Her bridesmaids were Miss Alba Fickie of Balboa, Charles Endicott of Placentia, Harold West of Fullerton, and Miss Katherine Watson and Miss Marjorie Solesbee of Placentia, who wore frocks of marquisette and satin, and carried bouquets of pink larkspur and white baby breath. Each wore her rhinestone bride's gift.

Attending the bridegroom were Lloyd Lakeman of Anaheim, a brother, as best man, and Charles Fickie of Balboa, formerly of Placentia, Mrs. Harold West of Fullerton, and Gerald Watts of Anaheim and Harold West of Fullerton.

County Boosters To Meet at Beach

NEWPORT BALBOA, July 12.—Call for the next regular meeting of the Orange County Coast association were prepared today. This month's gathering will be held at Wilson's cafe at Balboa Tuesday, July 19. Instead of at Long Beach as first planned. The Balboa meeting will listen to a report from Dr. Miller of Laguna Beach on his Washington tour.

Other committee reports will be presented and a resume of conditions along the coast line of Orange county will be submitted by delegates from the various communities. Reservations must be made in advance owing to the limited capacity of the dining room. Secretary Welch who sent out the notices states the August meeting will be held in Long Beach.

Beach Skeet Club Highly Honored

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 12.—The honor of shooting the opening round at the Western Open Tournament at which 11 states were represented fell to the Huntington Beach Skeet club at the Los Angeles-Santa Monica Skeet field Sunday.

The baby organization was given a fine send off with congratulations from many of the professionals attending the tournament. The professionals promised to come to shoot from the local field in the near future.

Shooting the first round were H. H. Smith, G. Miller, Pete McCuddin, Clyde Frampton, Rene and Harry Gorman.

ORANGE COUNTY DAY IS CHOSEN

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 12.—August 11 was set by the Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce as a tentative date for Orange County Day which will be celebrated in a first annual festival on the beach fronting the city.

Judge J. B. Tucker, of the city-county relation committee of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, will be contacted at once to check upon the proposed date to ascertain whether other important events are scheduled in the county for that date. Secretary W. H. Gallienne will contact Judge Tucker.

A huge barbecue will be one of the main features of the day in the dining room of the new Beach pavilion and on the beach. Games of many kinds will be played and dancing in the new beach ballroom will be the climaxing feature of the entertainment.

The committee in charge of entertainment plans consists of W. J. Briston, F. E. Bundy and Walter Dabney.

Laguna Legion To Install Officers

LAGUNA BEACH, July 12.—American Legion Post, 222, of Laguna Beach, will hold a special "Big Night" meeting on ??? ? ? ? evening, at Legion hall. Chief features will be the installation of the recently-elected officers, at which high-ranking Legion officers from outside points will conduct the ceremonies. It will also be "Father and Son" night; and many growing boys, sons of Legionnaires, will be present with their fathers. Stanley Harding, recently the recipient of the Boys' State award of the local post, will be present, and will tell of his experiences during the trip.

Under the direction of outgoing Commander Roscoe Lloyd Babcock, a committee is rapidly rounding arrangements into shape for Thursday's event. Hugh K. Peabody, Lloyd Loveland, and Homer Foster have matters in hand. All Legionnaires and veterans are invited.

Mrs. Covert Host At Bridge Party

COSTA MESA, July 12.—Bridge club members were entertained the past week-end with a luncheon and afternoon of cards as the guests of Mrs. William Covert, at her home, 506 14th street.

Prizes went to Mrs. Johnny Haun, high score; Mrs. R. S. Downing, second high score and Mrs. Emmett George, consolation.

Mrs. Belle Hoke will be hostess to the group Wednesday afternoon at the Edgewater cafe at Balboa. Mrs. Roy Page substituted for Mrs. Stanley Ackerman who is entertaining guests.

Present were Mrs. Roy Page, Mrs. Sam Hoke, Mrs. Emmett George, Mrs. R. S. Downing, Mrs. William Covert, Mrs. William Otey, Mrs. Claude Sweetman and Mrs. Johnny Haun.

Mrs. Emma Frost Dies On Monday

FULLERTON, July 12.—Mrs. Emma E. Frost, 75, died early yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edna Beeson, at 137 South Thompson avenue, Fullerton, after a long illness. Besides the daughter with whom she had made her home, she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Mabel Stephenson, of Texas, and two sons, Walter Frost and Harry Frost, also of Texas.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Wednesday from the McAulay and Suters funeral home, with the Rev. L. I. Chamlee, pastor of the Fullerton Christian church, in charge. Interment will be at the Loma Vista cemetery.

SIDE GLANCES by George Clark

"That's where we vacationed last year. There were about 10 girls to every man."

La Habra Woman Guest Of Honor

LA HABRA, July 12.—Mrs. Maude Adcock left Sunday evening for a visit with friends and relatives in Chester, Ill. On Friday evening a group of friends surprised her at her home on North Lois street, with a farewell party and handkerchief shower. An enjoyable social evening was enjoyed after which the self-invited guests served refreshments.

Attending were Mrs. M. H. Haste, a sister of the honoree of San Francisco; Mrs. R. E. Carey, Mrs. Ethel Felton, Mrs. A. B. Thurber, Mrs. Mary Rhoden, Mrs. Vivian Sherman, Mrs. B. C. Munford, Mrs. A. C. Schroeder, Mrs. Anna C. Launer, Mrs. Irene Morris, Mrs. Charles Goodchild, Mrs. William Fortson and Miss Antoinette Johnson.

SOCIETY TO MEET

PLACENTIA, July 12.—Members of the Dorcas society of Placentia of the Calvary church will meet all day Thursday at the church. A potluck dinner will be served at noon. A prayer hour will be observed at 3 p. m.

PLAN MEETING

PLACENTIA, July 12.—The Brotherhood of Calvary church will sponsor an open meeting July 22, when all interested will hear the Westervelt Missionary group, touring the country in the interest of missions. The meeting will be at the church.

JOINT OUTFALL SEWER RUSHED

ANAHEIM, July 12.—Progress over three months' reconstruction work on Section Two of the joint outfall sewer will be reported by E. P. Hapgood, city engineer for Anaheim, the contracting city, when the board meets tomorrow evening here.

Hapgood says that of the four miles for which WPA funds of $143,000 were allotted, a little over one mile has been completed. This portion extends along the west side of Verano road where a new ditch had to be built. The old line is on the east side.

Fifty-five hundred feet of pipe have been laid. The pipe is 27 inch vitrified. Work recently and during the first few weeks of the three months was delayed because of heavy drainage of surface water into the ditch.

There are 165 men at work, many of whom have been taken from other WPA projects which were not so urgent. The Anaheim street-repair project, approved following flood damage, while only a third complete has been suspended until more men are available. There are still 40 men needed on the outfall sewer who have not yet been provided.

Not more than a quarter of the money allotted on Section Two has been spent to date. With the $143,000 from WPA, the sponsors will put $92,000. Of this latter amount $40,000 has been granted by the state.

CHURCH LEAGUE TO HOLD BEACH PARTY

ANAHEIM, July 12.—Three events for the current week are occupying members of Grace Lutheran church.

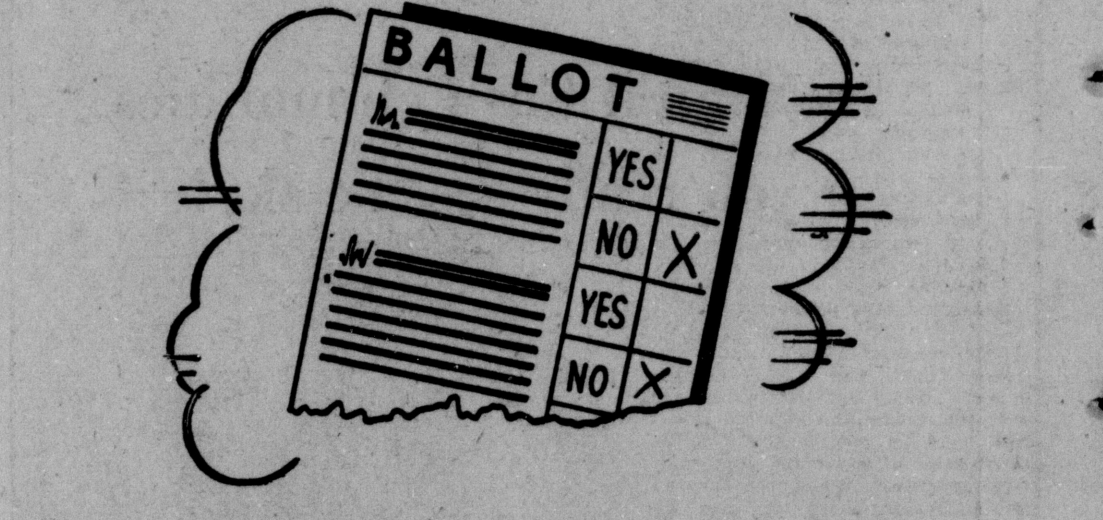

Tonight senior league members will attend a beach party for all leagues in Southern California to be held at Corona Del Mar.

Tomorrow the congregational meeting is planned at the church. A 6 p. m. dinner will be served by the Ladies' Aid and members of the Union Rescue Mission will entertain. The Ladies' Aid will visit Loma Vista cemetery Friday.

Anaheim chapter will be host next Tuesday to officers of all Lutheran leagues of Southern California.

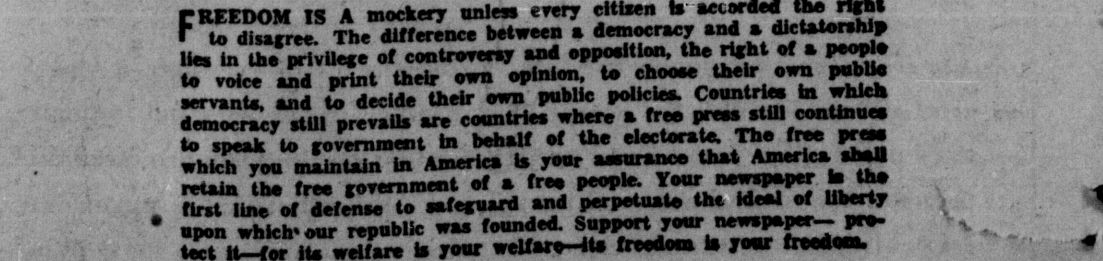

BENEFIT DANCE

WESTMINSTER, July 12.—The recent benefit dance sponsored at Odd Fellows hall by the William A. Smalley Relief Corps was well attended, approximately 60 visitors being present. Mrs. Jack Fish acted as hostess for the Corps and the Jack Fish orchestra furnished music for the evening.

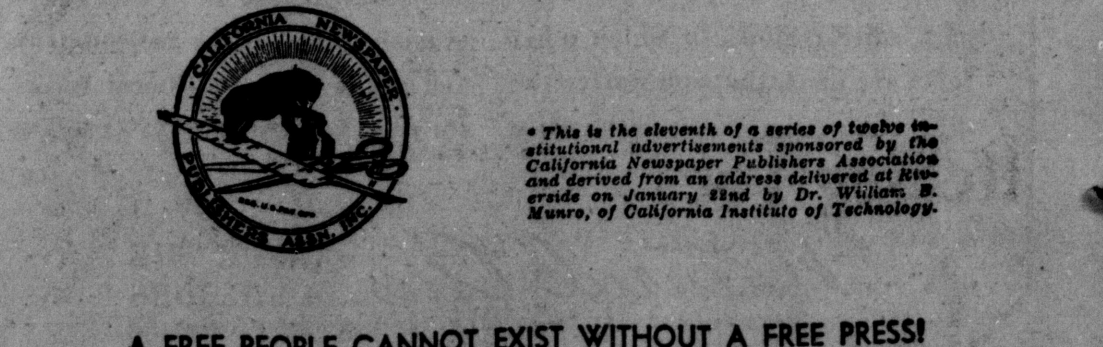

BE GLAD YOU CAN DISAGREE

FREEDOM is a mockery unless every citizen is accorded the right to disagree. The difference between a democracy and a dictatorship lies in the privilege of controversy and opposition, the right of a people to voice and print their own opinion, to choose their own public servants, and to decide their own public policies. Countries in which democracy still prevails are countries where a free press still continues to speak to government in behalf of the electorate. The free press which you maintain in America is your assurance that America shall retain the free government of a free people. Your newspaper is the first line of defense to safeguard and perpetuate the ideal of liberty upon which our republic was founded. Support your newspaper—protect it—for its welfare is your welfare—its freedom is your freedom.

This is the eleventh of a series of twelve institutional advertisements sponsored by the California Newspaper Publishers Association and derived from an address delivered at Riverside on January 22nd by Dr. William B. Munro, of California Institute of Technology.

Hardy Athletes Fall Asunder. One By One

BY HENRY MCLEMORE

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SHAWNEE - ON - DELAWARE, Pa.—Harry Cooper, a hay fever victim, is playing in the National P. G. A. championship here with a doctor in constant attendance.

Helen Jacobs is limping about with the aid of a cane.

Max Schmeling is a patient in a Berlin infirmary.

"Dizzy" Dean's arm is dead.

Paul Dean and "Schoolboy" Rowe are convalescing in the Texas league.

Archie San Romani has growing pains.

Don Hume, mightiest of stroke ears, has all the round aches on alternate Tuesdays.

And Sea Biscuit, War Admiral, Lawrin and Dauber—our four top horses—all have the miseries.

All of which prompts me to ask: Whither are we drifting in sports? What is the future of athletics if our athletes, supposedly the hardiest breed of all, continue to crack and break and bend at the rate they have in the past year?

My guess is that unless something is done to toughen our sports competitors the arenas of the future—the Madison Square Gardens, the Soldier Field, the Polo Grounds, the Belmont parks, the Olympic stadium, the Wimbledon—will be gigantic hospitals.

Surgeons will replace promoters. Internes will take over the duties of graduate managers. Referees and judges will be replaced by diagnosticians.

Santa Ana's two first-half City league leaders the champion and the second place Eltiste nine, are now setting the pace in the second half race. They chalked up their third victories in as many starts at the Municipal Bowl last night.

The Elks cawalked to an easy 8-1 victory over the M. E. Mustangs in the first game and Eltiste company slashed out a four-run attack in the fourth and fifth innings to edge out Montgomery Ward's 1937 champions, 7-4, in the tiebreaker.

The Elks-Mustang encounter was featured by the airtight hurling of Bruce Harnois, Elks' gunner. Harnois limited the Churchmen to three hits and one run.

Louie Collins' home run with Warren (Whitey) Mann aboard in the first inning gave Montgomery Ward's contingent a temporary 2-0 lead over Eltiste's in the second game. Three solid hits by Eltiste's clubbers in the third tied the count and their fourth and fifth inning rallies put the game on ice. Montgomery Ward tallied twice in the sixth to complete the scoring.

CLEVELAND—Big Ed Walsh pleads for the return of the dead baseball and inside play.

The famous White Sox pitcher of 30 years ago points out that it is practically all outfield play now.

The Big Moose yearns for more base running hitting and running, double plays, and diving catches.

In Walsh's day, a team had to do something besides bat a base runner around.

Players had to stand out defensively as well as offensively.

Walsh, now associated with a filtering plant outside of Meriden, Conn., dropped into Cleveland for a remarkable old-timers' game which saw Tris Speaker field his 1920 world champions intact.

Most of them played nine innings, including a young catcher named Stephen Francis O'Neill.

And after watching Smokey Joe Wood, Charley Jamieson, Bill Wamby, Doc Johnston, Joe Sewell, and Elmer Smith cavort, and Walter Maltch pitch, it might not be a bad idea for Alva Bradley to bring back some of the old Indians.

Smith, for example, batted a home run a mile over the same right field wall which he cleared with the bases full in the world series against Brooklyn 18 years ago.

O'Neill threatens to kidnap Maltch.

After Duster Maltch pitched two innings, O'Neill asked him how long he believed he could go and be that fast.

"For nine innings," replied the big left-hander now campaigning for the office of sheriff in Marin county, California, while serving as public relations counsel for the San Francisco Seals.

"I've a notion to kidnap you... take you to Buffalo," said O'Neill. "You could win in the International league... no foolin'."

It was a fine old-timers' game, with the 71-year-old Cy Young taking his turn for the Cleveland Naps of 1908.

O'Neill asserts that Charley and Keller of Newark would improve the New York Yankees outfield on either side of Joe DiMaggio.

"The departure of Bob Seeds helped some," said Stephen Francis, "but the presence of Keller leaves us plenty of trouble in Newark."

He says that the veteran Seeds has just caught up with the pitching, and will help the Giants.

Outside of a young Buffalo left-handed pitcher named Fred

ing that he has deceived many riders, consequently working faster than we wanted him to."

There is no doubt that Ligaroti is in the finest form he has yet attained since coming to this country from the Argentine last year. He has not yet won at a mile-and-a-quarter, his mile-and-an-eighth victory over Whitehead marked the furthest he has been able to successfully carry his speed. However, he gives every indication of being able to go the extra furlong.

A touch of comedy was attached to the workout as the track had to be cleared in order that Ligaroti wouldn't be stumbling over actors, extras, cameras and motion picture jockeys who are filming a picture. They announced over the movie loudspeakers, "Clear the track, here comes Seabiscuit."

Trainer Tom Smith, who developed Seabiscuit, shares the opinion that Ligaroti is the horse that Seabiscuit must beat Saturday. "Seabiscuit is at a disadvantage making this long ship west," he said, "but we came out here to run, and I think he'll run a good race."

That, however, can be taken for granted as if Seabiscuit had not been ready to break a couple of track records, he wouldn't have been brought out here.

Seabiscuit probably will get a stiff work tomorrow, but it is not likely that he'll be sent a full mile-and-a-quarter, as he is already tight and had a race July 4th.

In the meantime, Bert Baron, owner of Specity, No. Dice and Star Shadow, thinks he has an excellent chance for all of the money. His three stars are at the top of their form, and ready for their best effort.

UPSET SHOCKS P. G. A.: SHUTE WINS OPENER

SHAWNEE - ON - DELAWARE, Pa.—(UP)—The Professional Golfers' National championship rebounded to its first shock today when Harry Cooper, recognized as the country's greatest shot-maker, was eliminated in the first round by Felix Serafin of Clarks Summit, Pa. Serafin won 4 and 3.

Two up after seven holes and apparently headed for victory, Cooper lost the next five holes, one of them when he thoughtlessly picked up his ball on the 12th green.

Serafin, an erratic player but capable of red hot golf when his unorthodox swing is under control, won the 14th with a four against Cooper's five. All he needed then was a half and he got that on the next hole.

Cooper was the first major casualty. Before that, Denny Shute, the defending champion, had started the march of favorites into the second round with an unspectacular 3-1 win over Clyde Usina of Stoneham, Mass.

Trim Field to 16

The field was scheduled to be trimmed from 64 to 16 players by tonight. First and second rounds were up for competition today with the survivors continuing the toughest hand to hand fighting in golf tomorrow over the 36-hole route.

Shute, who scored his 13th consecutive match play victory—he won six each the past two years—was one down to his fellow 25-year-old Massachusetts pro at the turn. Denny squared it up on the 11th and clinched the victory with par fours on the 13th, 14th and 15th holes as Usina went over on each of them.

First round results: Denny Shute, West Newton, Mass., defeated Clyde Usina, Stoneham, Mass., 3 and 2.

Byron Nelson, Reading, Pa., defeated Clarence Yockey, Kansas City, 5 and 4.

Frank Walsh, Bretton Woods, N. H., defeated Tony Butler, San Angelo, Tex., 2 and 1.

Jimmy Hines, New York, defeated Alex Watson, Yonkers, N. Y., 3 and 1.

Dudley Oats Farrell, Ed Wulfe, Philadelphia, defeated Johnny Farrell, Baltusrol, N. J., 3 and 2.

Alvin Krueger, Beloit, defeated Ian Robertson, Ontario, N. Y., 2 and 1.

Harry Bassler, Long Beach, Calif., defeated Alex Geriak, Catskill, N. Y., 2 up.

Paul Runyan, White Plains, N. Y., defeated Levi Lynch, Dallas, 5 and 4.

Tony Manero, Peabody, Mass., defeated Joe Belfiore, Detroit, 5 and 4.

Tonight's Games

Huntington Beach at Santa Ana

Irvine at Orange; Brea at Anaheim

Whittier at San Bernardino

Doing business at the same old stand, the league-leading Huntington Beach Oilers play their last game of the season in Santa Ana's Municipal Bowl tonight unless the Stars qualify for the Shaughnessy series and meet Joe Rodgers' merry men in the post-season playoffs.

Rated as one of the best clubs that ever played in the big time—when they're all there and playing for keeps—the Oilers have lost this year only to San Bernardino (twice) and second division teams. They held two straight wins over Santa Ana, the first by a lopsided score and the second in extra innings after tying the score in the last of the ninth after two were away.

Against the Stars, the Oilers always "bear down" hard so they are heavily favored tonight although Manager Ray Smith professes to see an even chance for his Santa Anans. Smith has shaken up the Stars' batting order for the engagement. Tom Denney, who has been in the longest batting slump of his career although his fielding has been superb, drops from first to last place, at his own request. Tommy Young, another hard-hitter of other seasons, will swing just ahead of him. "Bris" Richardson, who has been socking the ball like a champion since joining the club from Orange two weeks ago, is promoted to the lead-off pole, followed by Manager Smith, Bob Mott, Joe and Ben Koral, Pitcher Stan Jacobsmeier and Tommy Lacy.

Venn Botts, youthful veteran pitching ace of the National division, will be on the mound for Huntington Beach, with Al Robbin again doing the receiving. Robbin has been on the shelf for ten days with an old knee injury but is ready to put on the mask and mitt here. His hitting will help the Oilers, Shortstop Rodgers also is expected back in the lineup for he likes to play against the Stars and match wits against Santa Ana's "wolf gang" of the stands.

Those who ought to know say that Botts is pitching now even better than seven and eight years ago when he'll be remembered as the hero of Colton's Rods against Joe Cornelius and the oldtime Santa Ana Stars. Botts has more diversity to his delivery now, his fast one seems to have just as much zip and his "downer" is harder than ever to hit. The only games Botts has lost this season were to Bob Fowler, his former teammate at San Bernardino. "Fuzzy" Errington was charged with the defeats by Irvine and Orange.

Gordons Trounce Grant Rings And Gain On Leaders

W. R. Gordons were only half-a-game out of first place in the Santa Ana Amateur league today after their 11-8 win over Grant Ring Sales at Santiago park last night. The victory sent the Bulks men into a tie with the Ringmen for second place with eight victories against five defeats.

The Gordons tallied five times in the sixth frame. The Ringmen were leading 5-4 at the time of the rally.

O. R. Haan's entry is leading the pack with eight wins against four losses.

'PINCH-HITTER' TAKES LACING TO SAVE SHOW

Bud Hurley, a scrappy little fellow from Long Beach, stepped in as a pinch-hitter and took a terrific beating but saved the show and won a host of friends for himself at the Orange County Athletic club last night.

The fans had flocked to the arena in droves to see the return bout between Sal Baca and Wayne Penn and when it was announced that Penn would not be able to appear "on account of a death in his family" and a substitute for Penn (Frankie Boyle) had resigned at the end of the first round because he was so completely outclassed, the fans were fit to be tied.

Hurley already had done his stint by taking a decision away from Joaquin Padilla in a hectic brawl and was sitting in the ringside munching peanuts. He got up and announced he would be more than pleased to take on the mighty Baca. He followed up his threat by getting back into his trunks and gloves and gave the fans a good bout for their money although he was no match for the Diamond Belt champion and was floored repeatedly and finally knocked out in the fourth. The game little rooster received a bigger applause than the winner for his trouble.

Fernie Baca, Sal's big brother, gave Donald Wood, colored, a royal beating, flooring the colored boy as fast as he could get up and finally winning by a knockout in the third.

Price Boatright, Ebony club rougher, took an easy decision from Tommy O'Connell who seemed to be having an "off night" and couldn't get going. This was a disappointment to the fans because O'Connell usually puts up an interesting battle.

Sammy Walker was given a technical knockout decision over Bobby Hobson who went in as a substitute and turned out to be a dud. Badge Diaz really stole the show by peppering colored Wally Bailey with more good solid fists to the whiskers than Bailey ever knew existed for four solid rounds, to take an easy decision and a generous applause from the fans.

Buddy Hurley outpointed Joaquin Padilla. Benny Garcia took a decision from Sammy Jackson in a riotous scrap. Cruz Diaz took an easy decision from Harry Carl.

Jolson, Mead Settle Dispute On Armstrong

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Al Jolson and Eddie Mead have settled their dispute over a managerial contract for Henry Armstrong, featherweight and welterweight champion, it was disclosed today when the mammy singer's suit for a share of the fighter's earnings was called for trial.

Counsel did not disclose terms of the settlement in scuttling the action.

Jolson had contended that he put up $5000 to finance Armstrong during the early stages of his meteoric ring career and that Mead, his manager, had repudiated the agreement. Mead insisted the money was only a loan.

The Orange County Night Ball league was knotted into a three-way deadlock between San Juan Capistrano, Tustin and Placentia today. Yorba Linda, the fourth place club, was one game behind the leaders and Laguna Beach in fifth place was only two games off the pace.

Tustin's 11-2 win over Yorba Linda and Placentia's 5-1 win from Irvine's Cubs sent them into a percentage tie with the idle San Juan Capistrano club.

Home runs accounted for all the scoring in the Placentia-Irvine bout. Doyle Talbert's four-base blow in the first inning sent Placentia out in front. Paul Francis tied it at 1-1 in the third with a home run of his own. Jim Stives broke up the ball game in the eighth when he hoisted one over the fence with two aboard.

Laguna Beach's Artist Colony nine remained in the running for the championship with a 2-1 win. Ray Buxton, husky Laguna shortstop, accounted for both runs.

GIANTS DEPART FOR CRITICAL ROAD TRIP

BY GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK—Those countless fans throughout the country who are rooting for "somebody, anybody," to beat out the two New York clubs in the pennant races had plenty of reason today to rise up and shout.

While the Cleveland Indians temporarily had the "Yankee menace" under control in the American league, a double threat appeared to oust the Giants from their National league lead. On the eve of the Giants' departure for their most critical road trip of the year, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati gained additional ground on New York.

It was only half-a-game each, but the way the Pirates and Reds won was significant. The Pirates twice came from behind to down the Chicago Cubs, 5-3, and reduced the Giants' lead to a game-and-a-half. It was the Pirates' 12th straight triumph, longest winning streak of the major league season.

Cincinnati lashed out with an eight-run rally in the first inning to conquer the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-3, for its fourth straight victory.

Pittsburgh's sensational spurt is one of the greatest drives ever made by the pirates in midseason. In yesterday's game the Pirates went into the ninth trailing 3-2 and staged a three-run rally off hard-luck Larry French.

With the bases loaded Relief Pitcher Jim Tobin singled to drive in two runs after the Pirates had tied the score. Then Mace Brown stopped the Cubs in the ninth, causing Pinch-Hitter Tony Lazzeri to hit into a double play to end the game.

The Reds batted around in the first inning, scoring eight runs off Henshaw and Harrell. Billy Myers and Lonnie Frey hit homers during the big rally, and Lew Riggs hit one in the third. The Reds collected 17 hits. "Peaches" Davis, coasting easily behind a long lead, gave up 12 hits.

BASEBALL GOES SOFT

NEW YORK (UP)—America is going soft. The National Recreation association has reported that there were more participants in softball during 1937 than in official baseball.

The geologic calendar of the earth's past is divided into five eras, and these eras, or ages, are made up of periods.

'POPEYE' GETS TITLE MATCH WITH CHICK

Pat O'Brien, one of the more colorful wrestlers on the Pacific Coast, gets his big chance Thursday night when he meets Junior Heavyweight Champion Dude Chick in the main event at Orange County Athletic club.

Chick who has been accused of evading a title match with Alvin Britt, former titleholder, has agreed to place the title and the gold belt accompanies it, on the block in his match with O'Brien.

Gene Autrey, singing cowboy film star and old-time range partner of Chick's when the pair were punching cattle in Wyoming and Texas, will accompany the champion to Orange county and may second him in the title match.

In the semi-windup Alvin Britt meets Tony ("Killer") Morelli in a two-out-of-three fall, one hour time limit match. Britt will depend upon his rope arm whip to subdue the Italian who will depend on either of his famous, or infamous holds, the Italian smother and the surfboard.

The feature event will match "Black Secret" the bicycle-riding wrestler, with Speedy LaRance, double champion of Canada.

"Bolo" Ben Pilar of the Philippine Islands will take on one of the minor horrors of wrestling, Jo-Jo, the Brazilian Pinhead, in a 45-minute battle.

In the 30-minute preliminary "Farm Boy" Fritz Hansen of Minnesota will have a new mystery to solve when he meets the masked "Red Devil" of West Virginia.

MONTEBELLO YOUTH STARS AT PREP NET

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—John Kramer, 16-year-old sensation from Montebello high school, near Los Angeles, was the only quarter-finalist as third round matches opened today in the National interscholastic tennis tourney at Merion Cricket club.

Kramer defeated Thomas Nixon, San Antonio, Tex., 6-2, 6-4, to step ahead of the field.

William Gillespie, Scarborough (N. Y.) high school, defending champion, won two victories in his title defense, downing Dante Lancellotto, Hope high, Providence, R. I., 6-3, 8-3 and John Schantz, Allentown, Pa., high, 6-0, 6-1.

FANS! Vote for your favorite players in Kellogg's ALL-AMERICAN BASEBALL POLL!

More than
$5,000.00
IN CASH PRIZES every week for 9 weeks!

Voting on FIRST BASEMAN starts Sunday! Who's your favorite? Easy to answer. Easy to win! You don't have to be a baseball expert. VOTE EARLY NEXT WEEK!

Who's your favorite First Baseman? Is he in the majors or the minors? Is he a veteran or a rookie? Is he left handed? Does he argue with the umpire? Is he handsome or homely? Is he a home-run king? Or just the kind of all-around ball player you get a kick out of watching and hearing about?

To win new friends, Kellogg wants to give baseball fans a chance to pick their own All-American baseball team. Every week for 9 weeks you have a chance to win part of more than $5000.00 in weekly Cash Prizes by voting for your favorite players in Kellogg's nation-wide All-American Baseball Poll.

Next week, vote for your favorite First Baseman. The following week, for Second Baseman. And so on, until the entire line-up has been decided.

Sounds easy, doesn't it? And it is easy! You don't have to be a baseball expert. Just do this. Get an entry ballot from your grocer. Or write on plain paper, Name your favorite First Baseman. He can be any professional player playing in any league today. Then complete this statement in 30 additional words or less: "I like him because...". Fancy writing doesn't count. Just give us your own personal reasons for voting for a particular player.

Send your entry, with the tops from two packages of Kellogg's Corn Flakes, your name and address, and the name and address of your grocer, to the Kellogg All-American Committee, Howard-Clark Building, Chicago, Ill. Further information and complete rules are contained in the official entry ballot, which your grocer will be glad to give you.

The ball player receiving the largest number of votes each week wins a brand new Buick and a position on Kellogg's All-American Team. Each week, fans and grocers share in the big cash prizes as shown at the right. And you don't have to vote for the winning player to receive any one of the awards.

But be sure to vote early next week! Vote as often as you like. Your entries must be postmarked not later than midnight, Saturday, July 23.

Plan to vote every week for the next nine weeks to help put your favorite players on the team! Remember—you have 1,004 chances to win a cash prize every week for nine weeks!

TUNE IN! The "Howie Wing" Program, thrilling saga of Aviation for young and old, will carry up-to-the-minute news on Kellogg's All-American Baseball Poll. 5:30 to 5:45 on most stations. Four times every week. Don't miss this popular new radio feature!

Snow White Will Head Tournament

BALBOA, July 12.—A contest to find the girl in Southern California who best represents Snow White to ride at the head of the annual Balboa Tournament of Lights here August 20 has been announced by tournament officials.

Snow White has already been named as the queen of the annual water event in keeping with the theme of the parade which is "Dreams of Youth."

On a float representing a portion of the enchanted forest and surrounded by the Seven Dwarfs, Snow White will ride at the head of the parade as queen. It is to select the girl to fill this position that the contest is being staged.

Looks Where He's Gliding

Showing American gliding fans something new by naming his destination and then landing right there, Peter Riedel, German sailplane ace now competing at the national meet in Elmira, N. Y., mounted his motorless airship, aimed at New York City, and landed there smartly after a 182-mile ride on air currents. Previous gliding technique had been to take off and trust to luck to find some not-too-hard landing place. Recently Riedel beat all U. S. distance records by gliding 225 miles from Elmira to Arlington, Va., airport.

SPRING PIG CROP 13 PER CENT HIGHER THIS YEAR, IS REPORT

The Bureau of Agricultural Economics reported today that the spring pig crop this year is estimated at about 43,384,000 head, according to W. M. Cory, assistant farm advisor. This is 13 per cent more pigs than were reported from the spring pig crop last year.

This year's spring pig crop is the south central states increased the largest in the past five years, but is much smaller than in any of the ten years before 1934, and 17 per cent smaller than the average of the spring pig crops of 1932 and 1933.

Lists Other Increases
The western corn belt reports the largest increase of any other section of the United States, where an increase of 17 per cent over that of last year is reported. In the eastern corn belt a 11 per cent increase is reported with an average increase for the entire corn belt of 14 per cent. The South Atlantic states reported 7 per cent more spring pigs this year than last. Spring pigs in

GIRLS' SHOWER ROOM APPROVED

Plans for rehabilitation of the girls' shower room at Lathrop junior high school, a project to cost between $2000 and $3000, were approved by the Santa Ana Board of Education last night, upon presentation by Austin and Wildman, Santa Ana architects.

Much of the equipment in the shower room has rusted out, and requires replacement, it was said. A general redesign of the room and equipment has been adopted, in connection with the new project.

Accept Auditorium
The board last night formally accepted the completed new Lathrop auditorium, the reconstructed tabernacle that was moved onto the grounds for the purpose.

REAR VIEW IS CAR REQUISITE

All persons driving a motor vehicle with view through the rear window obstructed in any way must have a rear view mirror on the outside of their vehicle so that the highway for a distance of 200 feet behind, may be seen.

That was the report of Capt. H. C. Meehan of the California highway patrol today in answering a series of questions presented by interested motorists.

Elaborates on Stickers
"How many stickers am I permitted to have on the windows of my car?" asked one woman.

"Stickers are permitted only on windshields within a seven-inch square in the lower corner farthest removed from the driver's position," Captain Meehan explained.

Other questions, with answers, are as follows:

"Is a cut out on a muffler o. k.?"
"Decidedly not. Section 673 of the Vehicle Code requires mufflers be in constant operation to prevent any excessive or unusual noise."

Watch Safety Zones
"My husband who is a chauffeur often complains that his foreman insists upon loads being hauled that are more than the law allows. If arrested would he be liable? He doesn't dare refuse to haul the loads, fearing loss of his job. What can he do?"

"Section 131 of the Vehicle Code reads: 'It is unlawful for the owner or any other person employing or otherwise directing the driver of any vehicle to require the operation of such vehicle upon a highway in any manner contrary to law.'"

"After midnight, when street cars are not operating, is it lawful to drive through a safety zone?" "It is not lawful to drive through one at any time."

CANADIAN LEGION CONVENES FRIDAY

A series of motion pictures showing various phases of life in the U. S. Navy will be presented at a social hour sponsored by Orange county post 42, Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., at 8 p. m. Friday at the K. of C. hall, it was announced today by Thomas Halliwell, adjutant.

Chief Yeoman George W. Stivers of the U. S. Navy will be in charge of the picture presentation, released by the Navy department in Washington. Refreshments will be served by members of the legion auxiliary.

Halliwell issued a special invitation to all patriotic organizations to attend the showing, including the D.A.V., American Legion, V. F. W., Spanish War Veterans and Boy Scouts. Admission is free.

MASONIC LEADERS HOLD ANNUAL PICNIC

The beautiful picnic grounds at Shell park in Brea was the setting for the annual steak bake sponsored by the Officers club of District 101, F. and A. M., last night.

Masons and friends present numbered 349. Earl Snyder, past master of Fullerton, and vice president of the officers' association, was general chairman of the affair. Elmer Hayes and Otto Harvey were in charge at the steak grill.

Following dinner, guests were welcomed by the 101st district inspector, Henry MacMasters. A. M. P. Brown presided as program chairman. He introduced Eddie Gammell, of Hollywood, who presented a group of vaudeville acts. Taking part were Joe Mann, juggler, Bernice Lynn, dancer at the Trocadero, Helen Wester, Paramount player who sang several numbers, and an act entitled "Barbarina and Her Dog." Another clever act was given by Betty Ludy and her trained horse "Imogene" which was composed of two tap dancers in costume. The program was presented in the amphitheatre at the park.

Jimmie Fidler in Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, July 12. — Idol Chatter: Jinx Falkenberg looks just like Joan Crawford should have looked—but didn't—when she was that age. Famous orations: William Powell's bitter harangue on the subject of women in slacks. Might be a good idea for Olga Celeste, Hollywood's famous "cat woman," to take a day off from training her leopards and spend it on the Dead End Boys. Things I never knew till now: that Joan Woodbury's mama was the first queen selected for Pasadena's Tournament of Roses. If all Hollywood beauties were as modest as Pauline Moore, very little "leg-art" would be shot. Wonder if anyone pities Lulu Rainer as much as Lulu Rainer pities herself? One word description of Ethel Merman: curvaceous. Funny how much steam can be generated in this town about the union troubles of screen writers—whose average pay is about $700 a week. Hollywoodites: the only civic building in Filmville is the U. S. Post Office. Alluring eye-fills: Hedy Lamarr in a chic hat, with a red half-veil which exactly matches her lip rouge and nail polish. It's a safe bet that Bob Burns will outdo today's philosophy—from Glenda Farrell: "Too many people try to climb the Hollywood ladder of success—wrong by wrong."

The other day one of our biggest stars gave a party in his San Fernando valley home—a party which lasted far, far into the night. Viewing his guests with an appraising eye shortly before dawn, their host decided that none of them were in fit condition to drive home and forthwith summoned a fleet of taxicabs. "Leave your cars here until tomorrow and go home in safety," he urged—and all of the inebriates excepting one, readily agreed. That one, a famous comedian, had to be put into a taxi by main strength—and the cautious hosts heaved a sigh of relief when he saw the cab's tail-light disappearing down the boulevard. But here's the pay-off: the comedian's present address is a local hospital. On the way to his home, the tax driver, drunker than his passenger, ran into a ditch and careened into a telephone pole!

Sonja Henie is an interesting study these days. At the peak of her success—coining money with a rapidity that makes even Hollywood dizzy—courted by most of the town's eligible young men—she, nevertheless, seems to me to be unhappy, dissatisfied and somewhat more cynical in her viewpoint than a girl with such Cinderella-like luck should be. You see her, in Hollywood's places-to-go, first with this beau, then with that—and nothing could be more apparent than her disinterest in all of them. To me, the significant thing is her self-consciousness when Tyrone Power enters the studio cafe and passes her table. She says nothing, but her silence speaks volumes.

Walking along the Boulevard this morning, and stopped to pass the time of the day with Maureen O'Sullivan, who was sitting in her parked car, waiting for her driver. She announced, proudly, that she is improving a between-pictures vacation by repainting her swimming pool. "What color scheme," I asked, "and with that she stepped from her car, opened her coat and revealed a pair of denim slacks that were one colorful daub of paint. "Apple green and yellow," she laughed, "and here's the evidence!"

Visited the "Artists and Models Abroad" set today and found Jack Benny playing one of the funniest scenes I have ever witnessed. But there wasn't a smile on the set—Director Mitchell Leisen, the rest of the cast, and even the labor crew, seemed to grow gloomier as Benny grew funnier with each new take. Hollywood's oldest and most revered superstition was at work. Every actor believes devoutly that gags which draw laughs on the set are sure to fall flat on the screen. To be funny, screen laugh must be still-born.

Overheard an amusing conversation between Mischa Auer and his director, Mischa's wardrobe needs for the picture were being discussed. "You've got to wear conservative clothes," the director insisted, "have you anything that will fill the bill?" "Just the thing," said Mischa. "I've got a suit that's so conservative it's almost a disguise. When I wear it down the Boulevard, no one ever suspects me of being an actor!"

Lopez to Learn Fate Tomorrow

Pronouncing of judgment upon Mateo Lopez, 30, of 705 Stafford street, who pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery upon the person of Petronilo Arriola, also of Santa Ana, was set over by Justice Kenneth Morrison yesterday until tomorrow at 9 a. m. Arriola received a broken arm in the reported melee. Judge Morrison will investigate Lopez' past history meanwhile.

PACT FOR NEW J. C. PLANS APPROVED

ARCHITECTS TO DRAFT PROJECT

Their action authorized by other school districts concerned in the proposed union junior college project, Santa Ana board of education last night approved a contract with the associated architects, Donald Beach Kirby, of Balboa, and Austin and Wildman, of Santa Ana, to prepare plans necessary for applying to PWA for a federal grant to the $1,000,000 project.

The contract provides a fee of not more than $800. Should the architects be employed further to prepare construction plans for the junior college, the fee received would be applied on the subsequent contract. The agreement approved, however, does not entail the obligation of employing the architects for additional work.

Represents Area
The Santa Ana board is representing the entire southern county area in taking preliminary steps for carrying out the union junior college project, being the only established entity available for the purpose, it was pointed out.

Santa Ana district, if the project succeeds, will be absorbed by the greater junior college district, which would include the four coastal high school districts: Capistrano, Laguna Beach, Newport Harbor and Huntington Beach, besides Tustin, and Orange, if that district decides to enter.

To Seek PWA Grant
A meeting of the fact-finding and legal-procedure committees about 10 days ago, gave approval to the steps that Santa Ana board already had taken, and other steps it plans to take in promoting formation of the union district. The Santa Ana board was specifically authorized to engage the architects.

It was decided to proceed with application for a PWA grant in advance of forming the new union district, because the school groups were advised that all such applications must be on file by the last of August.

PHI SIGMA NATIONAL SOCIAL GROUP SET FOR FETE TONIGHT

Hundreds of members of friends of Phi Sigma national social fraternity are expected to be present at the organization's annual pre-convention dance tonight at the Rendezvous ballroom in Balboa.

The local chapter of fraternity, Alpha Alpha, has been instrumental in formulation of plans for the ball, Delta Province, of which Alpha Alpha is a member, is sponsoring the dance. Other cities represented in the province are Los Angeles, Alhambra, Glendale, Pasadena, and Long Beach.

Prior to Conclave
The dance is being held prior to the fraternity's eighteenth national conclave which will be held this week-end, July 15, 16 and 17 at the U. S. Grant hotel in San Diego. Bascom Rush, 512 North Parton street, is Alpha Alpha's delegate. Ed Velarde, local student, is a candidate for a Supreme Council office—that of Supreme Historian and Eusebio Editor.

Arrangements have been in the hands of Paul Beckman. Many Plan Trip
Many Santa Ana members of Phi Sigma are planning to attend the organization's conclave. Those who expect to go include Rush, Velarde, Beckman, Lyndon Carman, Lewis Tadlock, Fred Beasley, Lloyd Miller, Alex Lowe, Norman Garrett, Maury Tomlinson, Jim Klepper, Bry Marston, Barney McKenna, Frank Mason, Eugene Heiser, Fred Pimental and Ed Cox. Others who may attend are Don Speck, Colin Burlingame, Bob Kloess, and Dave Holman.

SUMMER WORK ATTRACTS 116

Popularity of Santa Ana Junior college's annual summer sessions was revealed today when Dean George B. Holmes announced that a total of 116 persons are now taking courses.

Both college and high school classes are being taught by jaycee and prep school instructors. Eleven teachers compose the faculty under the general direction of Dean Holmes.

At Local Beaches
According to the dean, approximately 25 per cent of the students have enrolled from inland and out-of-state localities. The reason for this, he explained, was that they are spending the summer months at local beaches, yet desire to complete certain scholastic requirements and make use of their spare time.

The faculty consists of Miss Agnes Todd Miller who teaches jaycee English; Miss Mary Safley who instructs high school English and Spanish; Miss Lella B. Watson, junior college German, Spanish and French; Mrs. John L. Tessimann, astronomy and United States history; L. L. Beeman, economics and jaycee history; R. G. Bond, mathematics; Lucinda Griffith, artcraft; Miss Bonnie Kiser, public speaking; Miss Julia Holmes, shorthand; Mrs. Etta Conkle Cottrell, sciences; and Holmes, bookkeeping and typing.

The session will close July 29.

Kiwanis to Hear India Missionary

Dr. Sam Higginbottom, for many years a missionary and agriculturalist in India, will give a talk on the customs and conditions in that country at the regular meeting of the Santa Ana Kiwanis club tomorrow at the Masonic temple.

Dr. Fred E. Earel will be program chairman for the day and will introduce Lawrence Patterson, baritone, accompanied by Halsted McCormack, who will sing several selections.

Irrigation Will Be Friday Topic
A meeting to discuss irrigation practices and to show the method of measuring water is scheduled for 10 a. m. Friday at the M. S. Schwartz ranch, 101 highway, one-fourth mile south of the El Toro road.

J. B. Brown, irrigation engineer, University of California, and W. M. Cory, assistant farm advisor, will be in charge. All interested are invited.

There are 4361 general hospitals in the United States.

'PIGEON-GRAM' OF SANTA ANA WOMAN RECEIVED AT CONVENT

One of the grandest surprises of her life occurred for Venerable Mother Amanda, Order of Preachers, of the Dominican convent at Mission San Jose recently when she received a greeting by carrier pigeon from Mrs. Barbara Caroline Ralph, her former student 51 years ago in San Francisco.

Mrs. Ralph, resident of 4114 East Second street, was granted the privilege of sending the message as a "pigeon-gram" by Elvin Milbrat's Super Market Spot during its opening at 2201 North Main street.

Tells of Delight
Mrs. Ralph herself released the pigeon after her message was attached to its leg. "My wafted greetings through our darling messenger—the carrier dove," Mrs. Ralph wrote. "Auf wiedersehen."

From San Jose, Venerable Mother Amanda wrote: "My surprise was exceeded only by my delight upon receipt of your pigeon-gram. I greatly appreciate your thoughtfulness in remembering your old teacher in this lovely way. My only recompense is a hearty 'God bless you!' and a remembrance in my prayers." Venerable Mother Amanda added that she had placed the message on the school bulletin board for all of her present students to see.

Mrs. Ralph is the proud possessor of a letter from the White

HORSESHOE BRINGS ILL LUCK

ORANGEVILLE, Ont. (UP)—Tossing a horseshoe over his shoulder for luck in an effort to assure his lacrosse team of victory proved hardly lucky for a young local player. The horseshoe struck a rafter in a barn, rebounded and struck him on the head. As a result he was unable to play his usual good game and the team lost.

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

September Is Suggested As Wedding Date

That Miss Frances Was, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Was, 617 Orange avenue, is to be a September bride, was interesting news conveyed to a group of close family friends Sunday afternoon, when Mrs. Was entertained at a formal tea in her home. Guests heard with warm interest, the fact that Miss Was is betrothed to John (Jack) Lindsay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lindsay of Tustin. The home was like a flower garden for the occasion, and many of the vivid blossoms girdling the big living room were sent by Mr. Lindsay's aunt, Mrs. Earl Campbell of Orange. The effect in the dining room was especially lovely, for pastel hues of the flowers were repeated by the delicacies of the tea menu. Small cakes led in the dainty colors, were inscribed with the names, "Frances and Jack," thus revealing the engagement.

Delphinium, yellow pampas and pink blossoms were combined with feathery ferns in the central arrangement of the lace spread table. Mrs. Walter E. Bean of San Jose, grandmother of Miss Was, and Mrs. Arthur Lindsay presided at the silver tea urns. Both wore flowers sent by Jack Lindsay, who also sent gardenias to Mrs. Was, and the lovely spray of lilies of the valley and gardenias which his fiancée wore with her pretty turquoise afternoon frock.

Members of the two family circles represented on the guest list also included Mrs. Truscott Lindsay and Mrs. David ("Bill") Lindsay, sister-in-law of Mr. Lindsay, and his aunt, Miss Margaret Truscott and Mrs. Campbell; two aunts of Miss Was, Mrs. Milton Bowler and Mrs. Hall Perry of Sierra Madre, and various others from this community. Among young people present were members of Junior College Sisterhood of Spinsters. Miss Was completed Junior college just a year ago, and was prominent not only in Spinsters, but in all student body activities, including the honor societies. She is now office assistant for Dr. Harry C. Huffman.

Mr. Lindsay followed graduation from high school with studies at Chaffey Junior college, Ontario, and is now with General Petroleum company in Los Angeles. The wedding of the young couple is planned for September 24, chosen by Miss Was because it is the wedding anniversary of her maternal grandparents.

Notices Are Out

Tux and Gown club members have received their official notices of the next quarterly dance, a summer formal to be held Saturday night, August 6 at 9:30 o'clock at Santa Ana Country club.

By paying a nominal sum, members may bring guest couples, it was announced. The music of a jazz orchestra, and the festive informality which always prevails at these summer parties, are expected to add to the enjoyment of the affair.

FOR HOUSE-GUESTS

One of the interesting things planned by Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Reid, 1334 South Broadway, for entertainment of their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. William Viglia of Tulsa, Okla., and Miss Thelma Godwin of Cristobal, Panama, was a Sunday outing which took the group down into Mexico.

Miss Godwin, a girlhood friend of Mrs. Reid's has arrived from the Canal Zone to spend the summer in the Southland. The Viglias came late the past week to be here for a week or longer.

New Sycamore Rebekah Officers Installed Saturday Night

Between 150 and 200 members and guests assembled in Odd Fellows hall Saturday night for the installation of new officers of Sycamore Rebekah lodge, conducted by Westminister Rebekah officers headed by Mrs. Elizabeth Hall, district deputy president.

Mrs. Hall wore a pretty lace gown over blue taffeta, and her marshals, Linda McDaniel, and guards of the installing staff were wearing princess style frocks of apricot taffeta while the marshals and wardens wore lace in a variety of pretty pastel colors. This gave a charming effect to the ceremony as the rites proceeded.

Mrs. Lenna Hamilton was installed in the post of noble grand, succeeding Mrs. Alfreda Olsen. Installed with her were Mesdames Lillian Whitaker, vice-grand; Bessie Stoval, recording secretary; Hazel Ryan, financial secretary; Therese Dunning, treasurer; Florence Crawford, R.S.N.G.; Edna Gowen, L.S.N.G.; Emma Chandler, chaplain; Millie West, R.S.V.G.; Irene Baker, L.S.V.G.; Eleanor Cozad, inside guardian; Flossie Baker, outside guardian.

At the close of the ceremonial, Mrs. Hall presented a most noble grand's pin to Mrs. Olsen. Among special guests introduced with Mrs. Hall and her staff, were Henry Mang of Anaheim, senior warden in Grand Encampment, and Harry Hall of Garden Grove, deputy grand master.

Mrs. Ruth Zabel and her committee had charge of the social interval when refreshments were served in the banquet hall. Mexican primroses, dahlias and ferns were used with pretty decorative effect. The next event of paramount interest in Sycamore circles, will be celebration of the lodge's golden anniversary on August 13.

Negley-Wade Wedding Last January is Announced

Henry Negley and his bride, the former Miss Betty Wade are establishing their home in Long Beach following the surprise announcement today of their marriage last January 5, 1938, in Yuma, Ariz.

The new Mrs. Negley, daughter of Mrs. Mayme E. Wade, 505 1/2 Cypress avenue, had her schooling in this city. Her husband is a chemist in the laboratories of Union Oil company in Long Beach.

The young couple's wedding was a quiet event in the Arizona Grana Green. Accompanying them on the trip were the bride's sister, Miss Jane Wade and Forrest Miller of this city.

The Cecil Hansons Are Buffet Supper Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil M. Hanson gave an informal affair Sunday afternoon and evening in their home, 921 North Towner street, where a buffet supper was served as a climax to a session of games. Ping pong and croquet were the outdoor diversions occupying the group.

Daisies and bowls of pansies brightened the home for the enjoyable affair. Following the serving of supper, the hosts screened motion pictures including "Wheels Through Africa" and "Rolling Through Mexico."

With Mr. and Mrs. Hanson were Mr. and Mrs. John Cress and son Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence F. Spencer and daughter Sandra and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Andra.

You and Your Friends

The Misses Neumeier, 216 East Walnut street, and Lydia Neumeier, 1508 French street, have returned from a vacation visit with their mother, Mrs. Carrie Neumeier of Alta Vista, Kans. On their homeward trip they stopped over a day in Salt Lake City and enjoyed a swim in Great Salt Lake.

Mrs. Nell Winslow and son, Allan Winslow, 502 East Pine street, left yesterday for San Francisco, where they will spend a week. They plan to return home by way of Yosemite.

Interesting visitors in this city recently were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Linde and daughter Janie of Cincinnati, Ohio, who were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Kiser. Mrs. Linde, a teacher in the Cincinnati schools, is enjoying summer session at the School of the Theatre.

Flower Theme Developed By Party Hostess

A charming application of a flower theme to entertaining was yesterday in the bridge luncheon at which Miss Mildred Spicer entertained members of the younger social set in her home, 2348 North Park boulevard.

Small foursome tables were grouped in the drawing room and on the terrace, and their flower appointments for the luncheon hour harmonized with the loveliness of the Colonial cluster of blossoms gracing the dining room table. In this arrangement a single perfect yellow rose was circled with sweet peas deepening in tone from palest shell pink to flaming hues, and ringed in turn with mauve deepening into purple-lake larkspur.

The dainty place cards later designated partner arrangement for bridge play, and the flower colors appeared in ribbons tying the pretty gifts awarded Mrs. C. Stanley Norton and Mrs. Chester Horton for their first and second high scores.

Mrs. Charles Spicer assisted her daughter in receiving guests and in all details of the hospitality. Miss Spicer numbered on her guest list, Miss Betty Mellettin, whose betrothal to Jack Samways of Altadena was so recently announced, Miss Jane Green of St. Augustine, Fla., a charming Southern girl now visiting in the Mellettin home; Miss Martha Tuthill, Miss Mary Tuthill, Miss Marian Brown, Miss Eleanor Metzger, Miss Robert Horton, the latter's sister, Mrs. Hansel Coulson (Barbara Horton) down from Fresno for a week's visit in the J. Clyde Horton home; Mesdames John Scripps, Charles McDaniel, Chester Horton, William Thornton White, Jr., Edmund West, Bernard Parker, Thomas Rhone of Orange; J. Thoburn White, John Collins, Farrel Jones, Herbert Stroschein, Glenn Mathis, Quentin Matzen, Clarence Ranney, Arthur Wade, Kenneth Conner and G. Stanley Norton.

HOME FROM NORTH

When Dr. D. A. Harwood concluded his vacation spent in the Yukon territory, he went by plane from Whitehorse to Juneau, from there by boat to Seattle and then by automobile to San Francisco, where he was met by Mrs. Harwood.

Mrs. Harwood and Mrs. Severin Schulte of this city had been in the north for several days' stay. Mr. Schulte was in Seattle and other northern points on business. He and Mrs. Schulte made the trip home together early last week, and Dr. and Mrs. Harwood came home Saturday night.

CHARMING ALL-PURPOSE FROCK
PATTERN 4843
BY ANNE ADAMS

A flash of admiration is sure to greet this cool new shirtwaist frock wherever you go. You'll be proud of it for summer resort wear, stitched up in a bright print, and for business, strikingly crisp and dued colorings, and with plenty of youthful, isn't it?—and with plenty of feminine softness too in the rounded puffs of the sleeves and the bodice gathers. Anne Adams' new Pattern 4843 is particularly attractive in a checked or striped silk, with the center panel (so slenderizing to a size 42) cut out on the bias. Why not enhance the prettiness of the collar and cuffs with braid, and use contrasting buttons on the yoke front?

Pattern 4843 is available in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric, and 1 1/2 yards ric-rac.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Do you want to be a style leader this summer? Then write at once for the ANNE ADAMS SUMMER PATTERN BOOK. It's filled with hints on how to be cooler and smarter—how to look younger, slimmer, more glamorous—how to be correctly dressed for every summer setting, whether sunlit or moonlit. Don't delay in sending for this fascinating book, and make yourself some striking new summer clothes. PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. PRICE OF PATTERN FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Park Supper Followed By Bridge Games in Linsbard Home

Enjoyable in its various phases was the party shared Saturday evening by Evening Social section members of Woman's club and their husbands, who met first at Jack Fisher park for a barbecue supper planned by Mesdames C. W. Walter, Earl Lepper and G. V. Linsbard.

At the conclusion of the park supper, the group repaired to the Linsbard home, 415 West First street, where everything was in readiness for a session of bridge. It is the custom of the group to award prizes only among the men players, so on this occasion the attractive gifts went to H. M. Kinslow, scoring high in contract, and Dr. P. W. Dean with a similar record in auction.

In the group were Messrs. and Mesdames C. R. Walter, G. V. Linsbard, Earl Lepper, F. V. Martin, H. M. Kinslow, John S. McCarthy, W. L. Harbert, J. E. Braden, H. R. McVay, C. E. Brown, E. G. Maier, R. E. McBurney, L. E. Tarbox, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Pagett, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Dean, Mrs. William Kenny, Mrs. E. O. Ahern, Miss Jeanne Linsbard, and Miss Juliana and Richard Dean.

V. F. W. Group Attends District Breakfast

Several members of Ernest Kellogg post and auxiliary V.F.W. took part in the fourth and fifth district breakfast held Sunday in El Monte, where one of the large-scale crowds yet to gather for these interesting affairs, was entertained.

More than 200 people attended the breakfast, which was followed by an open meeting in El Monte High school auditorium. There were several fine speakers on this program, together with special entertainment provided by the El Monte auxiliary.

The next breakfast event of the two districts will come in August in Santa Monica. In the meantime, the second district will have a similar breakfast late in July in Beaumont.

Santa Anans present Sunday were Commander and Mrs. Bert Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hyatt, Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbard, John Lewis, Gordon Clayton, Mesdames Edna McHenry, Beatrice Davis, Esther Hendrickson and Louise Sawkel.

Family Group Enjoys Birthday Celebration

Members of a family group were assembled Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Yehnhardt, Verano Road, for dinner honoring the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Yehnhardt.

Adding to the enjoyment of the occasion was the presence of the bridegroom and bride of the family, Mr. and Mrs. John Yehnhardt, who were married in June. Mrs. Yehnhardt is the former Miss Ginger Keeler.

Others in the group with the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. William Yehnhardt were their children, Walter, Betty, Carl, Ruth and Esther Yehnhardt; Mrs. Robert Yehnhardt and children, Billie, Lois and Norma of Bell, who are visiting in Costa Mesa; Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wright and children, Mary and Jimmie of Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reed and son, Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hunt and daughter, Virginia, Santa Ana.

Second Pretty Twin Married At Yuma Rites

Less than two months after her twin sister was married, Miss Hazel Gene Harper, daughter of Mrs. Bodley Page Harper, 1809 South Broadway, became the bride of Daniel Ernest Molina, well known young amateur sportsman of Los Angeles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Molina of Beverly Hills and San Diego.

It was Wednesday, July 6 that the young people exchanged vows in Yuma, Arizona, chosen as wedding setting because it was in Yuma that the twin sisters, Hazel Gene and Helen Gale Harper, spent their childhood. University of Arizona friends of Mr. Molina were present from Ventura to serve as attendants at the wedding.

Miss Harper chose for her bride costume, a blue and white frock with cherry red accents, worn with a little veiled toque in blue and white, and a great cluster of gardenias. Returning from Yuma at their leisure, the new Mr. and Mrs. Molina were met at the end of the week by Mrs. Harper, who saw them established at their new address, 1431 Camden avenue, Westwood.

Mr. Molina, an alumnus of University of Arizona, is Los Angeles manager of Radio XEMO. He is well known in Southland golfing circles. His bride is a graduate of Santa Ana High school and Junior college. Her twin sister, Miss Helen Gale Harper, was married on May 14 in Phoenix, Ariz., to James Robert Bell Goss, young Los Angeles aviator. They are living in Beverly Hills. Mrs. Bodley Page Harper, mother of the twin brides, is one of the best known piano artists of this city.

Travel Idea Prevails At Merry-makers Dinner Event

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth King of Orange, who returned recently from an extensive tour of the east, observed a travel motif in decorative details of a party at which they entertained Merry-makers club Saturday night at Danagers.

Some of the many points which they visited were represented in the hand-painted scenes which served as combination place cards and tallies. Flowers and tapers in gold and orange brightened the table at which dinner was served.

Prizes furthering the travel theme were wrapped in tissues and ribbons in gold and bronze. These were won by Frank Bettis and Thomas Tournat, who held the highest scores among men bridge players; while Mrs. Bettis and Mrs. Thomas Alexander scored among feminine contestants.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Korff, guests, and Messrs. and Mesdames Kenneth King, Harold Smith, Thomas Smith, Harold Moomaw, Frank Bettis, R. P. Meairs, Thomas Tournat, Earl McBay and Worth Alexander.

Various Features Add To Enjoyment of Two Day Event

Breakfast this morning in the home of Miss Lorraine Tarbox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tarbox, 327 West Eighteenth street, came as a pleasant finale to a two day celebration in which a group of close friends participated.

In the party were Miss Tarbox and the Misses Ellen Neal, Dorothy Flaherty, Chelena McBurney, Dorothy Davis, Ruth De Gunther, Paula Purvis, Elizabeth Winbiger, Cecelia Telef and Miss Purvis' cousin, Miss Barbara Leevy of Hartford.

Festivities began yesterday afternoon in the home of Miss De Gunther, daughter of the J. B. DeGunthers, 514 South Garvey street, where bridge was in play following luncheon. Winning prizes were Miss McBurney and Miss Flaherty, who held high and low scores.

From there the group went to the T. J. Neal home, where Miss Ellen Neal was hostess, serving ice cream and cake to her guests. The young people attended the first show at the Broadway theatre, then went to the home of Miss Winbiger's parents, the Ernest Winbigers, 2004 North Ross street for enchilada supper.

A slumber party in the Tarbox home, where this morning's breakfast was served, brought the gay affair to a close.

Some of the group assembled Sunday afternoon in the R. D. Flaherty home, 702 South Broadway for bridge play. In the party were the Misses Josephine and Dorothy Flaherty, Lorraine Tarbox, Ruth De Gunther, Chelena McBurney and Mrs. Norman Wyckoff. Mrs. Wyckoff and Miss McBurney won prizes in bridge play, which was followed by the serving of refreshments.

Young Couples Have Double Wedding

Interesting double rites in which two pretty Santa Ana brides were wedded to two young men from Redlands, occurred Saturday evening, July 9 at 8:30 o'clock in Santa Ana Wedding chapel.

The Rev. Earl C. Bloss read the rites at which Miss Ruth B. Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Johnson, 2330 North Flower street, became the bride of Herman Katje, and Miss Virginia Elizabeth Pyatt, 712 Bush street, was wedded to Raymond D. Roberts.

The brides offered striking contrast, as one is blonde and the other brunette. They were gowned alike in navy blue triple sheer redingote costumes, worn with white picture hats. Each wore gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. Katje will live on Fourth street in Redlands, and Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will live at 330 Buena Vista street, also in Redlands.

BIRTHDAY GUESTS

Little Miss Beverly Humphrey, daughter of the William B. Humphreys of San Juan and Orange avenues, Tustin, discovered Sunday that celebration of her seventh birthday anniversary was not confined to the pretty party of Friday at which her playmates were entertained.

For on Sunday her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brown and her uncle, aunt and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Humphrey and children, Mary Lou and Edward, arrived from Van Nuys for a birthday surprise. They came to spend the day, so Sunday dinner was enjoyed by a family group which included with Beverly and her parents, her older sisters, Bernadene and Anita Humphrey.

Our Children
By Angela Hunt

"Now, mother, I don't see how you can stick another thing into this car, or tie anything else on, either. What is in that bag anyway?"

"The medicines. I simply have to have them. I wouldn't dare go away without them. You must find room. I'll carry it on my lap."

"On your lap? Three hundred miles? And the dog, too? Leave the stuff at home. What's the idea? You can buy castor oil at any drug store in the village."

"I don't use castor oil. At least not the old-fashioned sort. There's no use in talking about it. This bag has to go. I have the lotion for poison ivy if Helen should get pills for indigestion, iodine for cuts, salve, bandages, rhubarb and soda, quinine."

"Sure, I know. The whole drug store. And we don't need them. Forget them. I'll be responsible if you need any medicine. If Jimmy doesn't gorge himself he won't need rhubarb and soda. A healthy boy with indigestion! He ought to be ashamed of himself. I tell you they will all be better off if you lose that bag. I hope you do."

But the bag went along, just in case. Every household needs a medicine cabinet, but it ought to be locked and the key lost most of the time. Medicine should be used so rarely that the one person who knows about the key is entirely inadequate to the need. Cold spring water that is pure; pure sweet air; vegetables freshly gathered, milk and eggs born on the place, make medicine unnecessary. Children should not be dosed. They can be trained to a habit of taking medicine in season and out so they become regular contributors to the patent medicine folk. Don't tie them to such hobbies.

I would agree to the iodine and the boric acid and some bandages, and a box of band aids, so that cuts and scratches, so frequent in vacation time, can be promptly treated and forgotten. But that bag filled with boxes of pills and bottles of oil and whatnot—No. If medicine is needed let the doctor prescribe it, and as soon as the need for it is over, throw the stuff out. Don't worry about next time. Just take for granted that there will be no next time. Why should there be?

Having medicine handy tempts some people to use it, and to prescribe it for other folk—something I was taught very early in life—was never to be done. My father, noting with great satisfaction that my sister had recovered from an illness, gathered the various bottles and boxes that held medicines, emptied them, and destroyed the containers, all with such evident joy that I asked him why.

He laughed and told me, "Your old aunt was sick once and the doctor gave her some pills. In spring she cleaned house and found what was left of her medicine—three pills. She called her two children and me, and made us each take one of the pills. 'I paid money for them,' she said. 'They did me good. They can't be wasted. You each take one.' We had to, and we were not happy about it at all. Ever since, I have emptied medicine into the sink when it wasn't needed any more. Somebody might be tempted to use it just to save it."

TAX TERMITES EATING YOU

Those who still believe in the ancient fallacy that the "rich can pay the cost of government" will be startled by a recent survey showing that if everyone had to turn over to the government all income in excess of $5000 a year, the sum collected would pay only one-fifth of the total cost of government—federal, state and local.

In other words, the great bulk of taxes are "hidden-taxes"—and they are paid principally by the person of small and moderate means. A loaf of bread, for example, is taxed 57 times, according to government figures. The tax collector gets his share when you pay your rent, buy a suit of clothes, go to a movie or do almost anything else.

THE YOUNG IDEA

Some student of human behavior might produce the illuminating work if he set his hand to the task of determining whether man gets more democratic or less as he grows older.

Very young children, somebody has observed, are natural snobs. In most American high schools a pretty vigorous war on caste-consciousness is being waged by teachers and administrators these days.

A recently published study of student activities in colleges goes into the subject of social relations. It finds a sad disparity between the amount of democratic principle taught in the class-room and the amount of democratic conduct practiced on the campus. Clique-ism is frowned on, and embraced. The scramble among the students for social kudos rivals the scramble for passing marks. Caste lines are rigid.

Which may or may not be why more adults don't themselves carry out the democratic principles to which they pay continual lip-service.

A VOTE AGAINST DECENCY

The defeat of the Hatch amendment to the "lending-spending" bill was one of the most disgraceful episodes in the history of congressional action in this country.

The amendment provided that relief officials who attempted to use relief funds to sway the votes of relief beneficiaries should be discharged. It marked a praiseworthy effort to do away with one of the most notorious abuses of relief administration. On the grounds of good government, fairness and honesty, it should have been passed by an unanimous vote.

Instead it was beaten, in spite of the fact that some senators who have been strongest for greater relief spending, such as Senators Norris and LaFollette, supported it. And, incredible as it seems, one senator, in speaking against the amendment said frankly that if it were approved it would endanger the chances of certain senators being re-elected this November. In other words, these senators apparently felt that only the corrupt use of public money could save their jobs.

The Hatch amendment, to sum up, would have put some measure of lost decency into the handling of relief funds. The Senate voted it down. What a commentary that is on present-day government, and the moral character of public servants.

FACTS, NOT MUD-SLINGING DESIRED

In testifying before the Congressional Committee which is investigating the Tennessee Valley authority, ex-Chairman A. E. Morgan proposed that the committee depend upon neither his word nor that of the other directors, but, because of the many technicalities involved, appoint a board of competent, disinterested engineers to scientifically examine what the TVA has done and the manner in which it has done it. He then stated that he is willing to stand or fall by the judgment of a group of engineers of his character.

Commenting on this, the Chattanooga, Tenn., Times, a leading newspaper in the heart of the area served by TVA, said editorially: "It is hard to understand how the Congressional Committee can form an intelligent opinion of the TVA's engineering performance without undertaking the sort of study Dr. Arthur Morgan proposes. For in connection with the TVA's technical record, the public's desire is to know the facts and not what a committee of senators and representatives think the facts ought to be or even what the facts seem to be. In that part of the inquiry having to do with Dr. Morgan's charge that in reference to the TVA's power 'yardstick' there has been 'improper and misleading accounting, reporting, and publicity,' the Committee certainly will need the services of experts in engineering and accounting."

That is a fair statement of the case. There has been too much name-calling within and without the TVA. Some of the members of the Committee investigating TVA were in Congress when it was conceived and proposed, and were involved in forming, debating and voting on the enabling act which created it. Only competent engineers, who have no interest in the personalities participating in TVA affairs, who have no political axe to grind, and whose sole desire is to produce the facts, irrespective of whom they injure or benefit, can be capable of adequately assessing what TVA has done and has not done. The Committee owes it to the country to adopt Dr. Morgan's eminently reasonable request.

News Behind the News

By PAUL MALLON
World Copyright 1938
By King Features Syndicate, Inc.

BY SENATOR JOSEPH C. O'MAHONEY
Democrat of Wyoming

WASHINGTON, July 12.—This is an opportunity I never expected to have—even for a day—to take over the column of a Washington correspondent and tell the News Behind the News from the point of view of a member of the senate. But then, I've always been lucky. So now at last, I can tell Paul Mallon's readers how the Washington reporters make the news.

The truth of the matter is, they don't hunt news, they hunt drama and they experience the thrill of a boy in his first pair of long pants when they detect even a hint of personal conflict. An entertaining news story is like a good movie—the more human emotion there is packed into it the better, and if the emotion involves a row of some kind, well, that's the stuff the editors will put at the top of the column! And how the columnists like to feed it to them!

Bear this in mind when you read about the so-called monopoly investigation. Only this afternoon, I went through three-quarters of an hour of tough cross-examination at the hands of a score of correspondents who were trying their best to uncover drama in the latest meeting of the 13-man legislative-executive committee which has been set up to study America's economic problem. The law lost a fine bunch of inquisitors when the boys in the senate press gallery decided to devote their talents to journalism.

Imagine the possibilities of this story. Here's a committee composed of representatives of six important executive agencies on the one hand, and six members of congress on the other. Surely it's impossible to believe that at least one or two head-on-collisions can be avoided. Are not the executive and legislative branches of the government bound to be suspicious of one another?

But the committee has arranged to assign one of its congressional members to each executive agency in order to afford a complete basis for understanding and cooperation. Then the chairman, ship and the vice-chairmanship are given to members of the congressional group, and Leon Henderson, who has been economist for the WPA, is made executive secretary. So out goes one possibility for a scrap.

Others are left, as, for example, in the over-lapping jurisdictions of the departments and commissions. Wouldn't it be possible, the reporter asks himself, for the federal trade commission and the department of justice to battle one another since both deal with combinations and mergers? So the correspondent begins a delicate probe. He meets one committee-man in the hall, another in his office. Scrupulously refraining always from quoting anyone without permission or revealing the source of his information, the skilled reporter always plays one against another and whether you answer or not, whether you say "yes" or "no," he's got a story or at least "background." Then, too, he knows that few men in public life are above the common human frailty of liking to see their names in print and that the hardest thing for any man in public life to say is "I have nothing to say."

But here the committee has designated the executive secretary to act as a co-ordinator so as to develop unity of action. With the chairman and vice-chairman as consultants he will find the way to prevent duplication of effort. It may be proper to remark here that Hatten Sumners of Texas, chairman of the house committee on the judiciary and one of the dominant members of congress, is a consummate diplomat as well as a wise man. He'll be back in Washington after his primary on July 23rd and he may be depended upon to chart an even course for the inquiry.

But the possibilities for a good thumping free-for-all are not yet exhausted. Here's Thurman Arnold, new head of the anti-trust division, whose gift for trenchant, witty and vivid expression of economic issues has been only recently demonstrated in a best-seller "The Folklore of Capitalism." Now, surely he's going to pitch in and put business on the rack. Here certainly, the correspondent thinks, I can get some material for a blood and thunder thriller. For five hours, he sits in a stiff chair in the marble hall of the senate office building outside of the closed doors behind which the committee deliberates and, marvel of marvels, never once does he hear a voice raised to an oratorical pitch. The whole thing seems to be turning into a very tame search for facts.

The monopoly study will doubtless furnish many headlines, but probably few sensations. It is definitely not organized as a search for violations of law and a hunt for personal violators. It is a serious study of methods and causes in our modern economic system with the object of informing congress so that constructive legislation may be enacted to restore opportunity and establish prosperity.

U. S. May Purchase Surplus Clothing

Clearing House

Fellow Citizens:

It seems that Mr. Lew Betts and Mr. Hollis do not agree with me, on a recent article regarding Social Security acts, but I do not take offense, and will attempt to prove my stand.

I do not go so far as to say that Mr. Betts is haywire, just because we do not agree in our ideas, but will attempt to tear his article apart, as he did mine.

First, I would suggest that Mr. Betts write to the Social Security Board at Long Beach for circulars, then study the Unemployment Compensation Act. He will then be in a better position to know what the Act is all about. Instead of guessing, he may then find out that the haywire is on the wrong side of the fence.

In Mr. Betts' article: "If men are compensated for working will more men work?"

In answer I say: Just because most people carry insurance does not mean that they will commit suicide. The government and state is not paying people for not working; it is acting as a bank so that these employees can lay away something for the time they are unemployed.

Unemployed Compensation is nothing more than work security or insurance; and anyone who does not believe in this, surely does not believe in insurance or savings.

Quoting Mr. Betts: "If men are paid for growing oranges will men grow oranges?"

My answer is: This is all right as long as the crop is good, but then just say, for instance the oranges do not continue to grow. Don't you think it would be a good idea to have enough laid aside until we get another crop?

It is true that the employer pays a per cent of this compensation; but in most cases that is passed on to the consumer, and the wage earner, in some form, will pay a certain amount back.

Quoting Mr. Betts: "If the state offers a premium for idleness will it make men prone to loaf?"

This statement proves that Mr. Betts does not understand the Social Security Act, for this reason: to receive benefits, the worker must report to the Public Employment office to show that he is willing and able to work. Then, too, a person cannot receive benefits unless that person has not refused employment. Also a worker cannot collect if he quits his job without a good reason.

Then waiting a period of three weeks WITHOUT pay, he can collect one week of benefits to four weeks of work. If a person loses his job after being employed a total of forty weeks he may draw Unemployment Compensation for ten weeks only; even though he remains unemployed beyond that period, with a maximum benefit of fifteen dollars per week, and a minimum of seven dollars per week.

Mr. Betts seems to think it most absurd because I believe the payment of benefits will stimulate business; but I just can't see it any other way; because if a man has money laid away and he loses his job, surely he will have more to spend than if he had not laid any aside.

The worker and the non-worker are the same person.

Quoting Mr. Betts: "By what process of reasoning does Mr. Rowray arrive at the conclusion that it would stimulate business more so than if he had spent

YOU AND YOUR Nation's Affairs

THE RECKLESSNESS OF FAILURE

BY GUS W. DYER

Professor of Economics and Sociology, Vanderbilt University

Politicians never make any mistakes. They never acknowledge any failure. They always attempt to capitalize their failures by various devices and thereby continue to draw their checks from the government.

The huge and extravagant appropriations made by the administration under present business conditions give strong evidence of the recklessness of despair as far as the government is concerned.

The chief purpose of those in control of the government, it would seem, is either to bring about changes in the American system of Constitutional industrial freedom, or to keep the great army of federal office holders, now numbering almost a million, on the backs of the depressed taxpayers at any cost.

It is not unusual for individuals of a certain type to become reckless and extravagant when they give up hope of extricating themselves from impending bankruptcy. In some cases they spend lavishly to deceive their creditors with a bogus prosperity and thereby defer the day of reckoning. The administration seems to represent this type of individual today.

The present spending, "orgy" is radically different from that of 1932. The uncertainty due to a change of administrations in the midst of a depression, together with the added uncertainty with reference to the character and objectives of the new party in power brought business into a chaotic condition. The belief was very general that the abnormal economic conditions demanded and justified temporary governmental stimulation. Hence business in general cooperated with the administration in its huge spending program, as well as in its policy of placing unusual restrictions on business. All this was on the assumption that this high-powered stimulation would cease as soon as business started on the road to normal recovery.

But instead of withdrawing the stimulants and narcotics that never have any curative powers, the administration capitalized them as constructive economic forces and proceeded to make them permanent in our industrial system. The President then announced his fantastic "buying-power" theory of prosperity. In substance, this means that prosperity may be obtained and kept by giving away money on a big scale, and by producing less. After adding about fifteen billion dollars to the national debt in expending with this "perpetual motion" theory in the realm of business, the depression returned. No economist nor business leader of first order of ability ever even considered seriously the bizarre theory of receiving more by producing less and growing rich by squandering money in extravagance. This theory belongs to the world of exaggerated fiction. It has no place in the world of economic reality.

The policy of giving away money is always popular with the crowd, and the new theory of getting rich by spending was given an overwhelming endorsement. A "doze dream" prosperity came, remained a little while, and then vanished as all doze dreams vanish. When politicians were forced to face the awful facts, they decided to get on another big drunk, and forget the facts. "Recovery" and "economy" are now regarded as belonging to a last year's almanac. Borrow, spend, distribute billions as gifts to voters is the slogan now, and keep the control of these gifts in the hands of the partisan political leaders.

Four amendments were offered in the Senate to protect the unfortunate receivers of special governmental aid from undue political influence. The administration defeated all these amendments.

For the employed to contribute a part of his earnings to the support of the unemployed, rather than himself?

Again I say, Mr. Betts, please think these things out. Now I can see why you are one of the 17,000,000; but I will still try to explain.

This man is not contributing to the support of any one other than himself; and he cannot draw any one else's benefits just as in the case of a sickness or accident insurance policy.

I will attempt to illustrate—We will say the bank represents the government, the father represents the state, the mother, the employer, and the son the employee.

The father calls the son aside and asks him to lay away a certain amount of his allowance his mother is giving him, his mother will duplicate the amount, and put it into the bank for him, in case some day his allowance may be shut off. Then after a period of time his allowance is discontinued, and in order to eat and buy necessities he goes and draws out the money. Surely, by him having this money to spend at this time is going to help stimulate business more so than if he had spent

General Hugh S. JOHNSON SAYS

BETHANY BEACH, Del.—Is the Third New Deal uneasy over the elections? If its political pants were swarming with the ants of apprehension, it couldn't squirm more violently. Hurling-Barum and Bailey may have been forced back to Florida but the public is going to see a circus more spectacular—complete with rings, parades, sucked-side-shows, clowns, freaks and wonders.

There are no two-headed boys but the President is off on a scintillating swing across the Continent featuring his new dual-personality, or Jekyll-Hyde act. As Mr. Hyde, a party leader, he will stick political stilettoes into the midriffs of opponents of his fair-haired favorites in an act which, as Dr. Jekyll, a President, would be utterly impossible.

WPA has profited for puppeteers—Punch and Judy shows—but these will not take the road—small time stuff. This circus is to make a puppet show—first out of the Democratic party and next out of Congress.

Jim Farley, who had intended to go into cold storage in Alaska to keep out of this cowboy and Indian concert battle, has been drafted to make 11 canned speeches en route, fading out against the aurora borealis in a blaze of Michelson's fireworks.

Mr. Aubrey Williams' wholly non-political flying trapeze act with Dave Lasser and his WPA union of the unemployed—suggesting that they vote to keep the Williams-Lasser ilk in power—has just gone into its swing with Mr. Lasser endorsing Senator Elmer Thomas in Oklahoma as one of that ilk. Dave may not be a Communist but he makes a noise like one and trails with the Reds—forcibly occupying state legislative chambers and pulling strikes against WPA relief. If Elmer is of that ilk, Oklahoma doesn't want him. But it is all just part of the summer circus—Dave, Mr. Lasses all endorse Elmer who is a handsome old grandfather's clock—without any works inside.

I don't know whether the sudden snapshot inquiry into the miseries of the Southland rates as one ring under the big top or just a side-show. I think the latter because there are plenty of other rings like the midsummer monopoly witch-hunt. Mr. Paul Mallon, who is a careful reporter, says that the committee selected to diagnose Dixie was hand-picked to give the Third New Deal a benediction for its blessings on the south—which area, the President, not long ago suggested was still living in the feudal age.

What is happening and will happen there will be the presentation of a lot of hand-picked statistics by political departments to this hand-picked committee, ending in a living plaster-painted tableau of Mr. Roosevelt emancipating the "conquered provinces." About all of a permanent nature that has been done for the south is the improvements of TVA and the progressive destruction of foreign markets for its principal export crop—Cotton. The latter far more than offsets the former. As an example of high-class hokum and regular circus ballyhoo, this southern exposure stunt sets an all-time record.

blind, 554,000 dependent children and 1,610,000 needy aged other than those covered by the insurance have received help. A social revolution in less than three years.

If Mr. Betts has any better solution he has missed his calling; he should be in the White House hidden away in Tustin.

I contend that anyone that does not believe in our laws surely cannot have faith in our government that makes them.

Mr. Betts does not believe in Job Security and from his articles, he does not believe in WPA or relief. Will he go so far as to offer a solution for this problem, or perhaps his stand may be "Let the unemployed starve, then we will not have to bother with them."

Mr. Betts can string along with the 17 million, and I'll stay with the 23 million until the 17 million get some one at the head with something better to offer.

Maybe some of President Roosevelt's measures may not be perfect, but I have failed to see anything anyone else has to offer, except criticism.

I know what Mr. Betts will say—"I'll bet he is a WPA worker himself." I will answer this right away by saying: Yes, Mr. Betts, through unfortunate circumstances, I am; but I was one of the 23 million long before that time.

In another article I may be able to say in full so you will be able to understand it more thoroughly. Then you can see my reasons for agreeing with the Social Security Act and the present Administration.

I noticed, Mr. Betts, that you did not attack the first part of my letter. Was that o. k.? I was very sorry to hear that my opinion did not carry much weight with you as self-appointed spokesmen. I am more than willing to be known as I myself, as self-appointed spokesman for the 23 million would care much about being perfect.

The majority, of 11 million difference speaks for itself; but I do admire you for expressing your views, Mr. Betts, and please do not take any of my article as personal, but just as difference of opinion.

Sharing The Comforts Of Life

WHEN IS MONEY MOST DESIRED

When the people's word and the Government's word cannot be depended upon, it is then that real money with actual value back of it is most desired. When people's word and the Government's word can be depended upon, then people are willing to accept what is known as "promises-to-pay money" but when the promises cannot be depended upon, eventually people desire to get their wealth in the form of real money—money of actual value—that is accepted the world over for goods and services.

What we call money in the United States is not money at all. It is simply promises to pay money. The government has decreed that no individual in the United States can secure real money—money of value in itself. All they can secure is promises to receive money.

And this kind of lack of dependability eventually compels people with assets to try to get their wealth in the form that can be concealed from the government. Just as in China and India, wealth is largely in valuable jewels and gold so that they can be easily transported and concealed. This, of course, prevents the production of new wealth. It is detrimental to the great middle class of workers. It prevents them from using better tools and producing more. It retards progress.

GROWTH SUBJECT TO BUREAUCRATS

The new tax law gives the government the right to determine whether surpluses are unreasonably accumulated. It puts an extra 35 per cent tax on it in the opinion of the government agents they are unreasonable. This means, of course, that the overpaid inexperienced, non-productive government officials will be the final judge as to whether a large and great industrialist should retain his earnings for expansion or whether he should distribute them. Officeholders seem to love to make laws to give themselves power to run business.

But it is only natural for every government official to seek more power but it is very, very hard on the worker and the consumer because it prevents the good management, it retards production and makes everyone work harder for what he gets and pay more for what he buys, but it must be remembered that so long as it lasts it does make soft, easy jobs for incompetent papsuckers.

HOW WAGES ARE INCREASED

Few people realize that about the only possible way wages can ever be raised is to permit other workers to work and produce and make abundant the comforts of life so that each man who produces something can get a good exchange when he trades what he produces for what other workers produce. And the more every worker produces, the higher the wages of all workers will of necessity be.

Yet, in spite of this truism, we constantly are making laws to prevent people from working and producing. The only result can be lowering the real wages of workers, instead of raising them, as the advocates of the laws proclaim they will do.

CENTRAL VALLEYS PROJECT

The short sighted attitude of those responsible for the jurisdictional disputes in the ranks of labor is exemplified by the threats of bay district union officials to tie up work on the Central Valleys Project. An ultimatum was issued by a spokesman for 150 international officers of affiliated unions that no work will be permitted unless it is carried on by their members or affiliates.

In other words, because the labor leaders cannot agree among themselves as to which faction should be in control, they are willing to tie up a project that will cost $170,000,000 when completed and will affect directly the lives of millions of people.

Such an arbitrary attitude does no one any good, labor least of all.

The Central Valleys Project is now in the most critical stage of its existence. All the preliminary work has been done, plans have been drawn, estimates made and some contracts let. If permitted to move along at the normal rate plenty of dirt should be flying within the next few weeks.

Inasmuch as the project is dependent upon Federal appropriations, continued progress must be shown to receive additional funds.

It is of vital importance to California that it be completed at the earliest possible moment.

These are matters labor leaders should study well before tying up this great project over a jurisdictional dispute. Labor has much to lose by delay. Every day the work is held up means the loss of large sums in payrolls for workers.

It should be remembered, too, by those involved in these jurisdictional disputes that in such matters the public has some rights which should be given consideration.

It is to be hoped that all the parties involved will see the futility of such bickering and come to a speedy settlement.—Sacramento Bee.

BLOODLESS REVOLUTION

What is the source of a dictator's power? Five controls would make any man the absolute ruler over his fellow man: Control of his earnings and savings, of production, of his wages and hours of work, and of the prices he must pay.

These are the fundamental powers which Mussolini has, and which Stalin has. There is no essential difference between them. Both Italy and Russia are autocracies.

In the United States we have well-nigh turned over the first of these controls, namely, the control of our earnings and savings, to our chief executive. "With capital under control"—that is, the earnings and savings of the people—"we have nine-tenths of the socialist apparatus," said Lenin.

We are taking the same course in the other four controls. Agricultural products today are controlled by the secretary of agriculture, an appointee of the chief executive. Indirectly this control of production is likewise being extended to industry. Similarly, wages and hours are now under control of Madeline Perkins. Prices of food products—from wheat to rice, from meat to potatoes—are set by Washington.

So we may wake up some morning to find life on the American plan completely changed. The discovery will be made to no accompaniment of goose-stepping pomp and circumstance. We shall have been beaten not through a test of courage, but by our own apathy and indifference.—Nation's Business.

Fulton, Kentucky, Leader: "The Labor Board . . . has been notoriously partisan in its support of labor, and this is not right."
